

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

JOHN B. THOMPSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 07-21256 (Judge Adalberto Jordan)

THE FLORIDA BAR and DAVA J. TUNIS,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO DELAY COURT'S RULING ON MOTIONS TO DISMISS

COMES NOW plaintiff, John B. Thompson, hereinafter Thompson, as an attorney on his own behalf, and hereby moves the court to delay its anticipated ruling on the defendants' motions to dismiss, stating:

Attached hereto is a letter to Referee Tunis giving her one last chance to start acting like the referee and not like an operative of The Bar. Her response, whatever it is, may further inform the court as to whether Thompson has any chance of getting meaningful due process in the state disciplinary proceedings.

Thompson does not need to extend The Bar and the referee this additional opportunity. They have repeatedly blown this thing over the last 38 months, and on purpose. Only someone who has been trained by Scripture or by life, to give fools and knaves one more chance to do the right thing would give these people yet another chance.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that this has been served upon record counsel this 17th day of October, 2007, electronically.
