

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

JOHN B. THOMPSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 07-21256 (Judge Adalberto Jordan)

THE FLORIDA BAR and DAVA J. TUNIS,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE TO COURT

COMES NOW plaintiff, stating:

Thompson just spoke telephonically with one of Judge Jordan's pleasant law clerks. Thompson asked to speak with the law clerk assigned to this case. The clerk said that Judge Jordan is handling this matter himself, which is interesting.

Thompson contacted the court's law clerk, or tried to, in order to inquire when this court is going to remove Mr. Kent from the court's email list in light of the fact that he is not a party, does not represent a party, and was denied intervenor status. Kent surely is being treated like he's involved in this case by the court, and he's taking advantage of it, asserting around the globe that Thompson is undoubtedly a homosexual, given what Mr. Kent is gleaning for free from this court's file. Thompson, then, requests a ruling on the motion to remove this interloper from the court's email list.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that this has been served upon record counsel this 23rd day of October, 2007, electronically.
