Re: Case No. 07-21256, Thompson v. The Florida Bar, et alia

Dear Judge Moreno:

I appreciate your previous correspondence with me that Judge Jordan placed in the above public file. I communicate further in that same venue, since you raised therein Judge Jordan's impeccable fairness.

I should like to ask you, as Chief Judge, why Judge Jordan, having denied Mr. Kent's motion to intervene in this case why Mr. Kent has not been removed from the email list for the case, as he was never a party and never was an intervenor?

You may recall that Mr. Kent is the fellow who trafficks, for commercial profit, in what Judge Jordan describes as "obscenity." Mr. Kent has gone from asserting that I am the obscenity trafficker to now asserting that I must be a closeted Christian homosexual. Some folks can't quite seem to get over their fixation about Christians whose motives they don't care to understand.

Be that as it may, I really would like to know why Judge Jordan a) won't remove Kent from the court's email listing and b) why Judge Jordan won't even address the issue, despite my motions on it.

Judge Jordan was very quick, indeed, to violate his own Show Cause Order and throw me under the Ad Hoc Committee bus four days before his own October 5 deadline. This looks like more discrimination from the judge, again, this time protecting Mr. Kent and what he does yet again.

Please advise, as we are in the Eleventh Circuit now, and I should like to inform that court of what appears to be another discriminatory misstep by Judge Jordan. Thanks.
