

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

JOHN B. THOMPSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 07-21256 (Judge Adalberto Jordan)

THE FLORIDA BAR and DAVA J. TUNIS,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST/MOTION THAT THE COURT TAKE JUDICIAL NOTICE

COMES NOW plaintiff, John B. Thompson, hereinafter Thompson, as an attorney on his own behalf, and moves this court to take judicial notice of the facts contained on the attached two news items, stating:

Now that this court, while asserting its impartiality, has tried to report to a disciplinary committee the plaintiff in response to his alerting this court to proof of a) The Bar's selective prosecution/equal protection denial, and b) "obscenity" trafficking to folks of all ages, plaintiff would like the court to be apprised of the fact that the primary SLAPP Bar complainant against Thompson is the video game company, Take-Two/Rockstar, which as the court can see by the attached, is set to sell to American children, commencing on Halloween, a game banned for sale to adults in the UK and other EU nations.

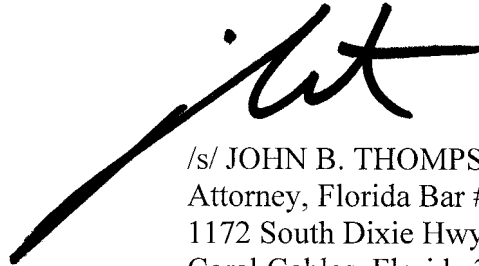

Note also that this game features the decapitation of a policeman with a shovel.

Plaintiff just wants the court to understand what The Bar's use of "discipline" is actually designed to protect. Maybe Barry Richard can submit a filing denying that as well. Thompson intends to submit to the court still images of the decapitations, etc., in this SLAPP Bar complainant's "game," unless the court wants to warn Thompson, ahead of time, that it finds such images more offensive than the molestation of children with them.

That was the court's heads-up on that. It won't get another.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that this has been served upon record counsel this 26th day of October, 2007, electronically.
