Re: The Bar's Protection of Norm Kent

Dear Mr. Marvin:

Because there is such a thing as redemption, I want to afford you and The Bar one more chance to begin to undo its denial of equal protection, compounded and worsened by its protection of The Bar's active shielding of my SLAPP Bar complainants from the consequences of their own unethical actions.

As you know, Norm Kent sent me a letter on August 24, 2004, which demanded that I apologize for filing an FCC complaint against the Howard Stern Show. He indicated therein that he would file a Bar complaint against me if I did not apologize. I did not apologize for alerting the federal government to Stern's violation of 18 USC 1464, so Mr. Kent filed his SLAPP Bar complaint.

As you also know, such a threat by Kent to bring a Bar complaint, and then the bringing of it, violates Bar Rule 4-3.4 (h).

Please proceed, finally, on this matter. I'll give you until 5 pm Eastern this Wednesday, October 31, to inform me that you and The Bar have done so.

Regards, Jack Thompson
