

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

JOHN B. THOMPSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 07-21256 (Judge Adalberto Jordan)

THE FLORIDA BAR and DAVA J. TUNIS, JOHN HARKNESS,
AND FRANK ANGONES,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

COMES NOW plaintiff, John B. Thompson, and moves this court for reconsideration of its order dismissing this cause without prejudice in the following regard:

The trial court at page 22 of its November 20 Order makes it abundantly clear that it has improperly dismissed by ignoring plaintiff's declaratory relief action. Plaintiff is entitled to a full and fair consideration of whether two Bar Rules are unconstitutional on their face or in their application. In fact, they are unconstitutional in both regards.

Plaintiff understands that the court likes neither this case nor the plaintiff, and rarely missed an opportunity to ridicule both, but this court cannot pretend that the declaratory action was not part of this case. He requests a full and fair hearing on the constitutionality of these two rules.

I hereby certify that the foregoing has been provided to opposing counsel through the court's electronic filing system, this November 21, 2007.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'J.B. Thompson', with a long, sweeping underline that extends to the left.
