

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

JOHN B. THOMPSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 07-21256 (Judge Adalberto Jordan)

THE FLORIDA BAR and DAVA J. TUNIS,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE TO COURT

COMES NOW plaintiff, John B. Thompson, hereinafter Thompson, as an attorney on his own behalf, and provides notice to the court as follows:

1. Plaintiff appreciates the time and courtesy afforded him this morning in this matter. Plaintiff is desirous of not inconveniencing the court further with what might prove to be mooted time, effort, and resources on one aspect of this case.

2. Plaintiff believes, based upon his past research, that both The Florida Bar and Dava Tunis are appropriate parties herein, the case authority discussed notwithstanding. However, in an abundance of caution and since the defendants may be inadvertently "pleading plaintiff's complaint to perfection," plaintiff, as an intended courtesy to the court and to the parties, informs you all that he will, within the next few days, at most, move for leave to amend the complaint herein to add the following defendants, given the current defendants' arguments today:

3. Plaintiff had wanted to keep this simple and also of minimal inconvenience to parties whom Thompson continues to maintain have better things to do with their time and with public monies than harassing a conservative activist on behalf of pornographers. However, since The Bar and Judge Tunis have, by their counsels' arguments, opened the door to suing other individuals, Thompson shall do so as an unintended consequence of others' efforts to frustrate a reasonable resolution of this matter.

4. Plaintiff is not moving the court for leave to amend his complaint in this fashion, but rather he is giving all a heads-up so that the court can apportion its considerable labors and duties so as not to address one complaint when another, because of argument of defendants today, is on the way.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that this has been served upon record counsel this 23rd day of August, 2007, electronically.
