Our depositions will not take place this month. You have already been informed that our earliest available date is January 5th. It took you thirty (30) days to object to our request for production of documents (you did not respond at all to our previous communication regarding Amazon's obligation to voluntarily produce certain relevant documents), so surely you can understand that we will need time to prepare for our depositions, which we cannot even begin to do until our motion to compel production is prepared and filed and all relevant issues are resolved. If you have any suggestions as to how we can proceed more expeditiously, we are all ears.

Please see the attached notices of deposition, for your depositions in the above-matter.

I would consider rescheduling for other (earlier) dates if you are not available on the dates indicated in the attached notices. Otherwise, I will expect your attendance on the dates indicated in the notices. Thank you.

Mr. Segal and Ms. Chaparova-

I would like to coordinate scheduling your depositions to occur at my office in Miami (100 S.E. Second Street, Suite 4200) during the December 14-22 time period (excluding the intervening weekend). I expect I will need a full day for each deposition. Please let me know which days during that period work for you. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

We will not be available on those dates. However, we can schedule the depositions to take place at your firm's Miami office on Jan 5th - 7th. Those are our earliest available dates, assuming Amazon complies with our request for production of documents, as required, so that we can have time to prepare for our depositions. Thank you.
