Drew,

I sent Mr. Conrad a follow up email to determine the status of his court ordered inspection of your client's blackberry/phone and received the response below. I consider your failure to provide the necessary password to him a serious breach of the Magistrate's order, which has allowed you to gain an unfair and improper advantage. While we have fully complied with the Magistrate's order so that the inspection of Michael's phone was accomplished timely, your office has failed and or refused to cooperate with Mr. Conrad, thereby preventing him from performing his court ordered inspection. As a result, you have received the data from Michael's phone, while we have been deprived of the data from your client's phone. Unless I receive a good and sufficient explanation, I intend to seek relief from the Court.

Left you a voicemail a few minutes ago...have not received the Blackberry password information, although Mr. Hasty is aware of my requirement for same.

I am not able to process the phone without the password as the Blackberry may wipe all data without it.

Additionally, I would like to return the Adelman phone to your office. I will be in Miami tomorrow...can I bring it to your office?

Regards,

Carter

Conrad,

I never received any reports regarding the other phones. Did you complete your work on them?

Drew,

I have received Bob Wyman's pictures and although I do not think that you are entitled to them, I have no objection to making copies and providing them. I will have someone in the office do it, since it is beyond my technical capabilities.

I am also still waiting for a response to my email from earlier regarding the message from Conrad Carter regarding his inability to perform the court ordered inspection because of your offices failure to provide him with your client's password.
