Dear Sirs,

Please be advised that the part of the settlement that I object to is the amount of settlement. What is the dollar amount that I am out per the agreement, the fees and penalties that I incurred? We should t the very least me entitled to a percentage of 10% or above to that amount.

The bank records should indicate what amount is due each account. That should be the venders' responsibility. We as consumers have already paid for Chase's accounting and reconciliation methods.

I am a teacher and my daughter is a college student. I don't make enough money to agree to an unfair amount from the settlement.
Thank you for your time and findings.
