Subject: Apple/Motorola Wisconsin: Agreement regarding infringement contentions

Ed:

Confirming our discussion earlier this week, we both agreed that the infringement contentions that we each will serve today in the Western District of Wisconsin case (10-CV-662) will identify the asserted claims and accused products for each patent. We further agreed that we will each provide detailed infringement contentions, including element-by-element claim charts as responses to our respective infringement contention interrogatories (Apple's Interrogatory No. 1 and Motorola's Interrogatory No. 6) by March 18.
