Dear Hotfile,
We appreciate the hotfile takedown removal tool and the tool has been working well as instructed.

Would it also be possible for you to provide me with five premium accounts in order for us to verify files more quickly? I would like these accounts for our anti-piracy managers in the USA, UK, Germany, APAC, and Latin America offices.

Kind regards,
Michael Bentkover

Hello again,
I just wanted to thank you again for the removal tool and increasing our limit to 1000 per day for Warner Bros. removals. Warner Bros. has several large (tentpole) titles releasing soon (The Informant, Where the Wild Things Are, Ninja Assassin, Invictus, and Sherlock Holmes). I'm worried that when these releases happen we will have up to 2,000 removals per day – which is quiet usual for us around the release of our titles.
Can you increase our limit to 2,000 just to be on the safe side which will ensure we don't have to email you for your prompt action?

Kind regards,
Michael

Can you advise what time the file quota is reset so I can plan deletions accordingly??

Thanks,

Michael

Hello!

Yes, limit will be increased.

Just forwarded this task to our tech department.
