You dont request it - its automatic just stick your paypal info in the members area

I have a question - How the hell does the gold silver bronze work - I have stopped using HF because of the confusion it caused me

One day I earn good money the next I get the same downloads and earn nothing

I would prefer an open system that we can all see and understand - currently we rely on you to tell us we are Gold, bronze or whatever.

Call me a cynic - but it is too easy to "cheat" with the current system
