Re: DM Music Group ("you") / Unauthorized Exploitation of Rely on Selph

Dear Mr. Watson:

I am writing on behalf of my client, Selph Records Inc., the exclusive copyright owner of the federally registered sound recording, Rely On Selph (the "Work"), Copyright Registration # SRu000292461 (1994). It has come to my client's attention that you are currently exploiting the Work in digital retail stores, including without limitation as an Amazon.com "disc-on-demand" without authorization.

Please take notice that the aforementioned uses are infringements of my client's exclusive copyrights in the Work under 17 U.S.C. §106, remediable by statutory damages of up to $150,000 under 17 U.S.C. §504. The willfulness of this infringement is evident in that my client's certificate of registration has been publicly filed with the U.S. Copyright Office for the last twenty years. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §410(c), the certificate of registration made before or within five years of first publication of the work constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity of the copyright and of the facts stated in the certificate. Please find a copy of my client's copyright registration annexed to this letter.

Accordingly, we hereby demand that you and all affiliated companies CEASE & DESIST all exploitation of the Work. Contact me within five (5) business days to discuss a settlement for the infringements of the copyrights in the Work. We will bring a copyright infringement action against you if we are unable to resolve this matter amicably and timely.

This letter should not be construed as a waiver, limitation or relinquishment of any of my client's rights or remedies, whether legal or equitable, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

Brian Levenson Esq.
