I arrived at 8:00 pm on Nov 6. The state wanted to have the vote. It does not make sense to have a election of the high school to wait so long to exercise their right vote.

I work and am a student at school so that I would not have been able to vote on Tues, Nov 6, 2012. I am a Law School Student.

4. Because of ~~the circumstances~~ I stated that my vote for in the 2012 general election will be stricken as denied.

5. I declare, pursuant to 28 D.S.C. § 174h and under penalty of perjury, that I have read the the facts stated above are true and accurate.

DECLARATION OF SHELDON ZANE

I, Sheldon Zane, hereby declare based upon personal knowledge:

I am a registered voter in Broward County, Florida. I reside at 107 Heatherbrook Way, Hollywood, Florida, 33021.

I am 78 years old.

On Monday, October 29, 2012, I attempted to early vote at the main library on Hollywood Boulevard. I arrived at about 11:00 a.m. I could not find a parking spot. I drove around for 15 minutes and finally parked in a spot that said "employees only." I went towards the entrance of the building and saw that the line wrapped around the block. I went to the back of the line, where I talked to someone toward the back, who said he had already been waiting 2-3 hours. From the length of the line, it looked as though it could take several more hours before I'd be able to vote. I decided not to attempt to vote that day.

I returned to the same location on Tuesday at about 10:00 in the morning. I didn't even park because I could not find a spot at all, after driving through the various parking lots for 10-15 minutes. I observed that the line was wrapped around the block again, like it was the other time I went.

If additional early voting times were made available, with adequate staffing and parking, I would attempt to take advantage of it.

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that I have read the foregoing and that the facts stated above are true and accurate.

 M.D.

I am a registered voter in Florida

I arrived at 1:10 pm, I am now tired and hungry. I waiting more than 2 hrs in a hot sunny line to cast my vote.

It is unfair to ask Florida citizens to wait so long on line to cast their vote. I am a good citizen I should be punished for wanting to vote.

Because of the problems above, I am afraid that my vote for 2012 general election will be bridged or denied.

I declare, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1745 and under penalty of perjury, that I have read the statements stated above are true and accurate.
