Motion for Extension of Time to Respond to Summary Judgment Motions

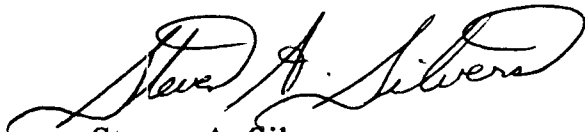

Steven Silvers moves this Court for an extension of time to respond to the Motion for Summary Judgment filed by Stelor Productions and the motion or motions which Google Inc. has represented it intends to file and as grounds states:

1. Steven Silvers desires to be represented by counsel in this matter.
2. Steven Silvers has obtained an attorney willing to serve as his counsel if this Court grants Silvers' motion for a continuance of the trial date.

3. Due to the complexity of this case, Silvers' proposed counsel will need at least twenty days from the date the continuance motion is hopefully granted and counsel officially appears in this case for Silvers, should this Court grant the motion for continuance of the trial.
4. Silvers desires to have counsel in this case, but the complexity of this case requires any incoming counsel to have adequate time to prepare for a trial and respond to the summary judgment motions.
5. New counsel will have to review almost 50 banker boxes of documents to prepare for either the summary judgment motions or trial and this is a major undertaking.
6. Silvers is not requesting or even suggesting the Court reopen discovery or the date for filing of dispositive motions. Silvers only wants to be able to be represented by counsel in this case.

Thank you.
