Joseph S. Brown

Plaintiff,

v.

Hartford Accident and Indemnity
Company,

Defendant.

Case No.:
06-81010-CIV
MIDDLEBROOKS/JOHNSON

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF FLORIDA
COUNTY OF PALM BEACH

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, this day personally appeared Joseph Brown, who, being duly sworn by me, and who has produced _____ as identification, or who is personally known to me, deposes, and says:

1. I know the following to be true based on my own personal knowledge of the same.
2. On or about September 2, 2002 I purchased a Death and Dismemberment insurance policy through my mortgage company, Chase Home Finance. The policy was issued by Continental Casualty Company and is being serviced by The Hartford.
3. The original policy was for $100,000.00.
4. I lost sight in my left eye on November 9, 2004.
5. Pursuant to the terms of the policy I was entitled to make a claim for $50,000.00 as shown by the terms of the attached policy which shows a maximum benefit of $50,000.00, which was issued after I reduced my coverage but is identical to the original policy in every other way.

6. I will not and do not claim more than $50,000.00 under the policy at issue. Therefore my claim is clearly for less than $75,000.00.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.
