

separate document in this case.

Discovery in this case has been held up long enough due to the parties' inability to agree on the terms of a Protective Order. The Stay of Discovery formerly ordered by this Court is hereby LIFTED. Discovery in this case will expire on February 27, 2012, that being no more than six (6) months after the date of this Order. Any dispositive and/or Daubert motions are due no later than April 12, 2012, that being 45 days after the expiration of discovery. The Court expects the parties to expeditiously and thoroughly move through discovery and to conduct themselves in accordance with the law and the professional standards governing attorneys, both in working with each other and with the Court. See, e.g., Thomas v. Tenneco Packaging Co., Inc., 293 F.3d 1306 (11th Cir. 2002). This Court hereby puts all parties on notice that it will not tolerate rudeness or disrespect in any form, including any such behavior made in filings with the Court.

SO ORDERED, this 26th day of August, 2011.
