CASE NO. 1:08-cv-00421-TWT

AFFIDAVIT OF S. DEREK BAUER

STATE OF GEORGIA,

COUNTY OF FULTON.

Personally appeared before the undersigned officer duly authorized by law to administer oaths, S. Derek Bauer, who being first duly sworn, deposed and said as follows:

1.

My name S. Derek Bauer. I am over twenty-one (21) years of age and I am competent to make and give this Affidavit, and do so from personal knowledge.

2.

I am an attorney with the law firm of McKenna Long & Aldridge, LLP, and

I represent defendant LFP Publishing Group, LLC (“LFP”) in the above-styled action.

3.

I make this affidavit in support of LFP’s Opposition To Plaintiff’s Motion For Partial Summary Judgment As To Liability And, In The Alternative, Rule 56(F) Motion For An Extension Of Time To Respond To Plaintiff’s Summary Judgment Motion.

4.

Counsel for the parties conducted an in-person Rule 26(f) conference on October 12, 2009. During that conference I informed counsel for Plaintiff that LFP needed to conduct discovery on several topics, including, among others, whether Plaintiff owns the right to pursue her claim of right of publicity on behalf of Nancy Benoit’s estate, or whether that right belongs to some other individual(s) or entity pursuant to a conveyance.

5.

Plaintiff served her first interrogatories and requests for documents on LFP on October 16, 2009, well before the discovery period began, Document Index (“D.I.”) 51; by agreement of counsel the parties have stipulated that LFP’s responses will be due November 30, 2009. Plaintiff also filed her motion for partial summary judgment, D.I. 50-1, on October 16, 2009.

The parties filed their Preliminary Report and Discovery Plan on October 28, 2009. (D.I. 53.) In that Report, the parties identified numerous topics on which discovery is needed. For LFP, these topics include, among others, Ms. Benoit's employment history; her business and professional contracts, including employment, licensing, sponsorship, endorsement and other agreements; income and revenue and activities generating same; tax records; her efforts to exploit her image and likeness, including modeling, acting, endorsement and/or other professional or amateur entertainment portfolios; and the circumstances of the Samansky photo shoot.

7.

Plaintiff's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment as to Liability, D.I. 50-1, argues that liability has been established based in part on assumed, but unproven facts on several of which LFP needs, has sought, but has not yet been provided any discovery. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges (but has not proven) that she is the duly appointed administrator and personal representative of the Estate of Ms. Benoit, Cmplt. ¶ 1, and that she has the legal right to control the use of Ms. Benoit's image, id. at ¶ 15. LFP needs discovery to determine whether Plaintiff is in fact the owner of the right she asserts and thus is the real party in interest in this matter. Further, Plaintiff has also alleged, but not proven, that Ms. Benoit did not license, release or otherwise authorize Defendant Samansky to use the images he took of her “for any purpose.” (Cmplt. ¶¶ 10-13.) (The Complaint does not address whether Ms. Benoit later licensed, released or otherwise conveyed rights to the images to an individual or entity other than Defendant Samansky, a question to which LFP is entitled to an answer during discovery.) This fact has not been admitted by LFP, and thus remains contested and unproven.

Most of the essential facts needed to be discovered by LFP (as identified in the Joint Preliminary Report and Discovery Plan), including the names of Ms. Benoit’s employers, agents, licensees, business partners, public relations advisors or other representatives and/or advisors, and the contracts and licensing agreements respecting the commercial use of Ms. Benoit’s image, are, LFP believes, within the control or personal knowledge of Plaintiff or her agents or representatives. Defendants believe that, given Ms. Benoit’s long association with professional wrestling organizations, during her life Ms. Benoit licensed or otherwise may have transferred to one or more third parties substantial rights to exploit commercially her name and likeness. Discovery from Plaintiff is required on these open, unresolved, and unproven fact issues.

LFP is diligently pursuing this needed discovery. The discovery period commenced on October 28, 2009. On November 5, 2009, I served on Plaintiff's counsel LFP's First Interrogatories and First Requests for Production of Documents to Plaintiff, which discovery requests address the open fact issues previously identified by LFP to Plaintiff's counsel in both the parties' Rule 26(f) conference and in the preparation and submission of the parties' Joint Preliminary Report and Discovery Plan. (See Exhibits 1 and 2 hereto.) Plaintiff's responses to LFP's discovery requests are not yet due, and Plaintiff has not yet responded to them.

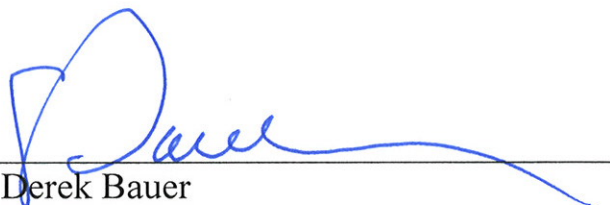

10.

To date, including in her Initial Disclosures, D.I. 46, Plaintiff has not identified any individual(s) or entity with knowledge of the topics on which LFP needs discovery, nor has Plaintiff produced or described any documents or other information relevant to those topics.

LFP will also likely need to take the depositions of Plaintiff, Ms. Benoit's ex-husband James Daus (who has submitted in affidavit in support of Plaintiff's Complaint), and Defendant Samansky; and to issue third-party subpoenas to and depose other persons or entities not yet identified, but whose identities are expected to be learned through discovery obtained from Plaintiff and Messrs. Daus and Samansky.

FURTHER, AFFIANT SAYETH NOT

This 5th day of November, 2009.
