Tams-Witmark licenses the rights to perform complete, live stage performances of many Broadway Musical Shows to producers of musical shows around the world. All of our shows may be performed successfully with just solo piano accompaniment, using specially prepared piano-conductor's scores which we supply. Our shows are also available with standard Broadway orchestral arrangements. We do not license parts of shows or individual songs from shows. We welcome inquiries by authorized individuals from educational institutions and theatrical organizations.

We are ready to meet your musical stage production needs. We are the world's most experienced company in providing musicals to amateur and professional groups. Our 136 years of experience is at your disposal, and our highly trained customer service representatives will help you ensure the success of your production. Our state-of-the-art facilities and equipment make ordering a show from us quick and easy.

The catalog of Broadway musical shows that we offer is the finest in the world. Whether you have a show in mind already, or you are not sure which one you would like to perform, you will undoubtedly find the perfect musical in our library. Some of the musicals in our catalog are described in depth on the following pages. Shows are not always available, and availability is subject to change. We will be pleased to answer your letters, respond to you by fax or talk with you by phone about the shows that you are considering.

We look forward to working with your group and helping you perform a rewarding Tams-Witmark musical.
