

E
X
H
I
B
I T

10

African American Single Mothers

Understanding Their Lives and Families

edited by

Bette J. Dickerson

Sage Series on Race and Ethnic Relations

v o l u m e 10

PENGAD 800-631-6988

PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT

DIXON 10

Contents

Series Editor's Introduction	vii
John H. Stanfield II, Series Editor
Introduction	ix
Bette J. Dickerson
Acknowledgments	xxxi
1. Centering Studies of African American Single Mothers and Their Families	1
Bette J. Dickerson
2. Female-Headed Households in Sociohistorical Perspective	21
Norma J. Burgess
3. Women's Life-Affirming Morals and the Cultural Unity of African Peoples	37
Annie Ruth Leslie
4. Teenaged Mothers: A Sense of Self	53
Sharon Elise
5. Single Parenting: A Visual Analysis	80
Dhyana Ziegler
6. The Impact of the Law on Single Mothers and the "Innocent"	94
Willa Mae Hemmons

7. African American Children in Single-Mother Families Suzanne M. Randolph	117
8. The Role of the Grandmother in Poor Single-Mother Families and Households Susan M. George and Bette J. Dickerson	146
9. Gender, Poverty, Culture, and Economy: Theorizing Female-Led Families Rose M. Brewer	164
10. Empowerment Through the "Ordinary" Knowledge/Scholarship/Policy Nexus Bette J. Dickerson, Philipia L. Hillman, and Johanna E. Foster	179
Index	193
About the Authors	197