

E
X
H
I
B
I
T

7

Biber

Handbook of

Handbook of Feminist Research

Theory and Praxis

PENGAD 800-631-6989

PLAINTIFF'S
EXHIBIT

ESP. 7

Editor

Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
1. Feminist Research: Exploring the Interconnections of Epistemology, Methodology, and Method Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber	1
PART I. Feminist Perspectives on Knowledge Building
2. Feminist Empiricism Catherine Hundleby	29
3. Feminist Standpoints Sandra Harding	45
4. Postmodern, Poststructural, and Critical Theories Susanne Gannon and Bronwyn Davies	71
5. The Politics of Border Crossings: Black, Postcolonial, and Transnational Feminist Perspectives Hyun Sook Kim	107
6. Feminist Interdisciplinary Approaches to Knowledge Building Sally L. Kitch	123
PART II. Feminist Research Praxis
7. From Theory to Method and Back Again: The Synergistic Praxis of Theory and Method Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber and Deborah Piatelli	143
8. Toward Understandings of Feminist Ethnography Wanda S. Pillow and Cris Mayo	155
9. Feminist Interviewing: Experience, Talk, and Knowledge Marjorie L. DeVault and Glenda Gross	173
10. Using Survey Research as a Quantitative Method for Feminist Social Change Kathi Miner-Rubino, Toby Epstein Jayaratne, and Julie Konik	199

11.	The Link Between Theory and Methods: Feminist Experimental Research Sue V. Rosser	223
12.	Reading Between the Lines: Feminist Content Analysis Into the Second Millennium Shulamit Reinharz and Rachel Kulick	257
13.	Feminist Evaluation Research Sharon Brisolaro and Denise Seigart	277
14.	Participatory and Action Research and Feminisms: Toward Transformative Praxis M. Brinton Lykes and Erzulie Coquillon	297
15.	Narratives and Numbers: Feminist Multiple Methods Research Abigail J. Stewart and Elizabeth R. Cole	327
16.	Feminisms, Grounded Theory, and Situational Analysis Adele E. Clarke	345
17.	Emergent Methods in Feminist Research Pamela Moss	371
18.	Feminist Perspectives on Social Movement Research Sarah Maddison	391
19.	Institutional Ethnography: From a Sociology for Women to a Sociology for People Dorothy E. Smith	409
PART III. Feminist Perspectives on the Research Process: Issues and Insights
20.	Core Feminist Insights and Strategies on Authority, Representations, Truths, Reflexivity, and Ethics Across the Research Process Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber and Abigail Brooks	419
21.	Authority and Representation in Feminist Research Judith Roof	425
22.	What's Good Writing in Feminist Research? What Can Feminist Researchers Learn About Good Writing? Kathy Charmaz	443
23.	Reading for Another: A Method for Addressing Some Feminist Research Dilemmas Laurel Richardson	459
24.	Truth and Truths in Feminist Knowledge Production Mary Hawkesworth	469
25.	Holistic Reflexivity: The Feminist Practice of Reflexivity Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber and Deborah Piatelli	493

26. Feminist Research Ethics Judith Preissle	515
--	-----

PART IV. Commentaries on Future Directions in Feminist Theory, Research, and Pedagogy

27. Dialoguing About Future Directions in Feminist Theory, Research, and Pedagogy Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber	535
28. Reason, Truth, and Experience: Tyrannies or Liberation? Helen E. Longino	547
29. Critical Perspectives on Feminist Epistemology Noretta Koertge	553
30. The Feminism Question in Science: What Does It Mean to “Do Social Science as a Feminist”? Alison Wylie	567
31. Standpoint Epistemology and Beyond Nancy A. Naples	579
32. Commentary: Using Feminist Fractured Foundationalism in Researching Children in the Concentration Camps of the South African War (1899–1902) Liz Stanley and Sue Wise	591
33. Future Directions in Difference Research: Recognising and Responding to Difference Diane Reay	605
34. Feminist Designs for Difference Michelle Fine	613
35. Decolonizing Approaches to Feminist Research: The Case of Feminist Ethnography Katherine Borland	621
36. Future Directions of Feminist Research: Intersectionality Bonnie Thornton Dill, Amy E. McLaughlin, and Angel David Nieves	629
37. Interconnections and Configurations: Toward a Global Feminist Ethnography Kum-Kum Bhavnani	639
38. Feminizing Global Research/Globalizing Feminist Research: Methods and Practice Under Globalization Jennifer Bickham Mendez and Diane L. Wolf	651
39. A Global Feminist Perspective on Research Maria Mies	663
40. Future Directions of Feminist Research: New Directions in Social Policy—The Case of Women’s Health Lynn Weber	669

41. From Course to Discourse: Mainstreaming Feminist Methodology Debra Renee Kaufman	681
42. Feminist Pedagogy Reconsidered Daphne Patai	689
43. A Passion for Knowledge: The Teaching of Feminist Methodology Judith A. Cook and Mary Margaret Fonow	705
Author Index	713
Subject Index	733
About the Editor	749
About the Contributors	749