Counsel for Amicus Curiae

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO JOIN BRIEF OF
THE UNITED MEXICAN STATES
AS AMICUS CURIAE
IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS

The Government of Uruguay (“Uruguay”) respectfully files this motion for leave of Court to join the amicus curiae brief filed by the United Mexican States (“Mexico”) on June 15, 2011, expressing grave concerns over Georgia’s immigration law, House Bill 87 (“HB 87”) and underscoring the importance of preliminarily enjoining HB 87 and declaring it unconstitutional in its entirety.

Mexico and Uruguay share a commonality of interests – differing not in substance, but merely in proportionality and degree of impact – with regard to HB 87. Similar to Mexico, Uruguay has a substantial and compelling interest in ensuring that its bilateral diplomatic relations with the government of the United States of America (“United States” or “U.S.”) are transparent, consistent and reliable, and not frustrated by the actions of individual U.S. states; in this case Georgia. As with U.S.–Mexico relations, HB 87 raises substantial challenges to the bilateral economic, immigration and security policies of the United States and Uruguay.

Furthermore, Uruguay has a substantial and compelling interest to ensure that its citizens are accorded human and civil rights when present in the United States in accordance with international treaties, the U.S. Constitution, and federal immigration law. Like Mexico, Uruguay is gravely concerned that HB 87 will lead to racial profiling and disparate treatment of its nationals. Accordingly, Uruguay has a substantial and compelling interest to ensure that the ethnicity of its citizens is not used as basis for state-sanctioned acts of discrimination.

As such, Uruguay has a compelling interest in seeing that HB 87 be preliminarily enjoined and declared unconstitutional in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted this 17th day of June, 2011 by counsel for Amicus Curiae,
