¹ As this case involves a pro se party, the Court provides further guidance. An order remanding the case means that the case will continue to be heard, but in the court where it was originally filed – here, the Magistrate Court of Cobb County. The case is simply being returned to the Magistrate Court of Cobb County for further proceedings. Because the case is not being dismissed, there is no right to appeal this order. Any future motions should be filed with the Magistrate Court of Cobb County.
