On April 3, 2017, Plaintiff and Defendant Flour Enterprises, Inc. moved for approval of their settlement in this case. (Doc. 44.) The Court denied that motion on May 16, 2017, because it contained a pervasive release. (Doc. 46.) These parties have amended their settlement agreement and now ask the Court again to approve their settlement. (Doc. 47.)

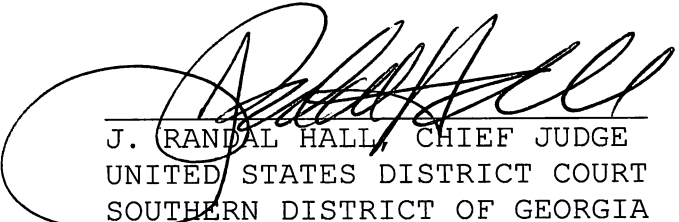

Under the revised agreement,

Plaintiff releases and discharges any and all claims he may have under the FLSA, as well as any other claims which could have been brought relating to his pay or reimbursements while employed by Defendant or which necessarily should have been brought as part of the claims asserted in the Litigation.

(Doc. 47-1 at 10.) Because this release resembles provisions this Court has previously approved, the Court GRANTS the parties' motion and APPROVES their settlement. The Court also GRANTS their request to dismiss Plaintiff's claims against Flour WITH PREJUDICE. The Clerk therefore is instruct to TERMINATE Flour Enterprises, Inc. as a party in this case. Furthermore, the Court ORDERS this case STAYED pending the resolution of Defendant WECTEC Contractors, Inc.'s bankruptcy proceedings.

ORDER ENTERED at Augusta, Georgia this 10th day of July, 2017.

J. RANDAL HALL, CHIEF JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
