MAGISTRATE JUDGE’S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiff Rodney Tweedy, a pretrial detainee at the Charles B. Webster Detention Center in Augusta, Georgia, commenced the above-captioned case pro se in his name and in that of his wife and requested permission to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”). On December 13, 2024, because the nature of relief sought by Plaintiff was unclear, the Court ordered Plaintiff to clarify whether he intended to proceed with a § 1983 civil rights action or a § 2241 habeas corpus petition. (Doc. no. 3.) Plaintiff responded by submitting a completed § 2241 habeas corpus petition, a handwritten § 1983 complaint, and a mostly blank § 1983 civil rights complaint form, and he stated he would like to proceed with both actions. (See doc. no. 4.) Accordingly, on January 14, 2025, the Court directed the Clerk to open a new habeas corpus case using the completed § 2241 habeas corpus petition and directed Plaintiff to submit all filings related to his § 1983 civil rights action under the above-captioned case number, CV 124-225. (Doc. no. 5.)

In the same Order, the Court directed Plaintiff to return his Prisoner Trust Fund Account Statement and Consent to Collection of Fees forms within thirty days and advised Plaintiff all prisoners, even those proceeding IFP, must pay the filing fee of $350.00 in full. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1); (see doc. no. 5, pp. 3-5.). The Court also directed Plaintiff to submit an amended complaint within that same thirty-day period. (See id. at 5-8.) Plaintiff was cautioned failure to respond would be an election to have this case voluntarily dismissed without prejudice. (See id. at 8.) The time to respond has passed, and Plaintiff has not submitted the IFP documents or an amended complaint as required by the Court's January 14th Order. Nor has he provided the Court with any explanation why he has not complied.

Plaintiff cannot proceed IFP unless he submits the requisite Trust Fund Account Statement and consents to collection of the entire $350.00 filing fee in installments. Wilson v. Sargent, 313 F.3d 1315, 1319, 1321 (11th Cir. 2002) (citing 28 U.S.C. § 1915). Moreover, a district court has authority to manage its docket to expeditiously resolve cases, and this authority includes the power to dismiss a case for failure to prosecute or failure to comply with a court order. Equity Lifestyle Props., Inc. v. Fla. Mowing & Landscape Serv., Inc., 556 F.3d 1232, 1240 (11th Cir. 2009) (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b)); see also Eades v. Ala. Dep't of Hum. Res., 298 F. App'x 862, 863 (11th Cir. 2008) (per curiam) ("District courts possess the ability to dismiss a case . . . for want of prosecution based on two possible sources of authority: Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) or their inherent authority to manage their dockets."). Also, the Local Rules of the Southern District of Georgia dictate that an "assigned Judge may, after notice to counsel of record, sua sponte . . . dismiss any action for want of prosecution, with or without prejudice . . . [for] [w]illful disobedience or neglect of any order of the Court; or [a]ny other failure to prosecute a civil action with reasonable promptness.” Loc. R. 41.1 (b) & (c). Finally, dismissal without prejudice is generally appropriate pursuant to Rule 41(b) where a plaintiff has failed to comply with a court order, “especially where the litigant has been forewarned.” Owens v. Pinellas Cnty. Sheriff’s Dep’t, 331 F. App’x 654, 655 (11th Cir. 2009) (per curiam) (citing Moon v. Newsome, 863 F.2d 835, 837 (11th Cir. 1989)).

Here, Plaintiff’s failure to return the necessary IFP papers and file an amended complaint, or even to provide the Court with an explanation for his failure to comply with the Court’s January 14th Order amounts not only to a failure to prosecute, but also an abandonment of his case. This is precisely the type of neglect contemplated by the Local Rules. Plaintiff has been warned that failing to return the necessary IFP papers and submit an amended complaint would be an election to have his case voluntarily dismissed. (See doc. no. 5, p. 8.) As Plaintiff has neither fulfilled the requirements for proceeding IFP, nor paid the full filing fee, and because the imposition of monetary sanctions is not feasible in light of the initial request to proceed IFP, the Court REPORTS and RECOMMENDS this case be DISMISSED without prejudice and this civil action be CLOSED.

SO REPORTED and RECOMMENDED this 10th day of March, 2025, at Augusta, Georgia.
