ORDER

Plaintiff has paid the $400.00 filing fee in the above-captioned case. Because he is proceeding pro se, the Court will provide Plaintiff with some basic instructions regarding the development and progression of this case.

Initially, Plaintiff is responsible for serving Defendant. For agencies, corporations, officers, or employees of the United States subject to service under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i), Plaintiff must first obtain from the Clerk of Court an appropriate summons for Defendant<sup>1</sup> and deliver a copy of the summons and the original complaint, via registered or certified mail, to (1) the civil process clerk at the office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Georgia; (2) Loretta E. Lynch, the Attorney General of the United States,

<sup>1</sup> The docket reflect that Plaintiff has already obtained from the Clerk of Court summons for Defendant, to be used for effecting personal service. (See doc. no. 1.) Nevertheless, for the benefit of pro se Plaintiff, the Court provides instructions herein for how he may request that Defendant waive service.

Washington, D.C.; and (3) the officer or agency being sued. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i)(1)-(2).<sup>2</sup> Plaintiff must serve Defendant within 90 days from the date his complaint was filed, and failure to do so may result in the dismissal of Defendant or the entire case. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).

IT IS ORDERED THAT Plaintiff shall serve upon Defendant, or upon its attorney if appearance has been entered by counsel, a copy of every further pleading or other document submitted to the Court. Plaintiff shall include with the papers to be filed a certificate stating the date a true and correct copy of any document was mailed to Defendant or its counsel. Fed. R. Civ. P. 5; Loc. R. 5.1. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the action, and the file number. Fed. R. Civ. P. 10(a). Any paper received by a District Judge or Magistrate Judge that has not been properly filed with the Clerk of Court or that fails to include a caption or certificate of service will be returned.

It is Plaintiff's duty to cooperate fully in any discovery that may be initiated by Defendant. Upon being given at least five days notice of the scheduled deposition date, Plaintiff shall appear and permit his deposition to be taken and shall answer, under oath and solemn affirmation, any question that seeks information relevant to the subject matter of the pending action. Failing to answer questions at the deposition or giving evasive or incomplete responses to questions will not be tolerated and may subject Plaintiff to severe sanctions, including dismissal of this case. Defendant shall ensure that Plaintiff's deposition and any other depositions in the case are taken within the 140-day discovery period allowed by this Court's Local Rules.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>2</sup> There are distinctions between service on the United States, service on an agency or corporation of the United States, and service on an officer or employee of the United States sued in an individual capacity. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i)(1)-(2). Plaintiff should examine the copy of the Rule attached to this Order to determine under which category Defendant falls.

While this action is pending, Plaintiff shall immediately inform this Court and opposing counsel of any change of address. Failure to do so will result in dismissal of this case.

Plaintiff must pursue this case and failure to do so may result in dismissal for want of prosecution. Fed. R. Civ. P. 41; Loc. R. 41.1. If Plaintiff wishes to obtain facts and information about the case from Defendant, Plaintiff must initiate discovery. See generally Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 through 37 (containing the rules governing discovery and providing for the basic methods of discovery). Plaintiff should begin discovery promptly and complete it within the time limit set forth in Local Rule 26.1(d).

Interrogatories are a practical method of discovery for pro se litigants. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 33. Interrogatories shall not contain more than twenty-five questions. Id. Plaintiff must have the Court's permission to propound more than one set of interrogatories to a party. Discovery materials should not be filed routinely with the Clerk of Court. Exceptions include when the Court directs filing; when a party needs such materials in connection with a motion or response, and then only to the extent necessary; and when needed for use at trial. If Plaintiff wishes to file a motion to compel pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 37, he should first contact the attorney for Defendant and try to work out the problem. If Plaintiff proceeds with the motion to compel, he should file therewith a statement certifying that he has contacted opposing counsel in a good faith effort to resolve any dispute about discovery. Loc. R. 26.5.

Plaintiff must maintain a set of records for the case. If papers are lost and new copies are required, these may be obtained from the Clerk of the Court at the standard cost of fifty cents per page.

Under this Court's Local Rules, a party opposing a motion to dismiss shall file and serve his response to the motion within fourteen days of its service. "Failure to respond within the applicable time period shall indicate that there is no opposition to a motion." Loc. R. 7.5. Therefore, if Plaintiff fails to respond to a motion to dismiss, the Court will assume that there is no opposition to the motion and will grant the dismissal.

A response to a motion for summary judgment must be filed within twenty-one days after service of the motion. Loc. R. 7.5, 56.1. A failure to respond shall indicate that there is no opposition to the motion. Loc. R. 7.5. Furthermore, each material fact set forth in Defendant's statement of material facts will be deemed admitted unless specifically controverted by a statement filed by Plaintiff. Loc. R. 56.1. Should Defendant file a motion for summary judgment, Plaintiff is advised that he will have the burden of establishing the existence of a genuine issue as to any material fact in this case. That burden cannot be carried by reliance on the conclusory allegations contained within the complaint. Should a factual assertion in a defendant's motion for summary judgment be supported by affidavits or other materials in the record as provided in Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c), Plaintiff must respond in kind with counter-affidavits or other such materials, if he desires to contest Defendant's factual assertion. Should Plaintiff fail to properly address Defendant's factual assertions and show that there is a genuine issue for trial, the factual assertions made in Defendant's motion which are properly supported will be accepted as undisputed and, if Defendant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, summary judgment will be entered against Plaintiff pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 56.

SO ORDERED this 4th day of May, 2016, at Augusta, Georgia.
