ORDER

Claimant Therese Ryan, proposed Executrix/Administratrix of her deceased husband’s Estate, seeks to stay this case so that she may perfect her claim to the property. Doc. 16. The United States does not oppose her request, though it reserves its rights under the Supplemental Rules to later move to strike Ryan’s claim. Doc. 17. Accordingly, claimant’s request is GRANTED and the case is STAYED until Ryan gains Letters of Administration from the state probate court. Within 120 days of service of this Order or 30 days of the issuance of any such Letters, whichever occurs first, the parties are DIRECTED to update the Court about the status of the case and file any request to lift the stay.

SO ORDERED, this 10th day of May, 2018.
