

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
SAVANNAH DIVISION

COLONIAL OIL INDUSTRIES,) INC,)
)
Plaintiff,)
)
v.)
)
JONATHAN ARNETT,)
)
Defendant.)

CV421-286

ORDER

The case arises out of an agreement to supply motor fuel. Doc. 1 (Complaint). The parties filed a Rule 26(f) Report explaining that a case is pending in the Eastern District of Kentucky related to the same agreement. Doc. 15 at 2 (citing Southern Petroleum, Inc., v. Colonial Oil Indus., Inc., et al, 6:21-cv-00174-REW-EBA (E.D. Ky. 2021)). They indicate that Colonial Oil Industries, Inc., has filed a motion to transfer the Kentucky case to the Southern District of Georgia, and that if the motion to transfer is successful, the case may be consolidated with this case. Id. The parties request that the Court stay this case pending the outcome of the motion to transfer. Id.

For good cause shown, and following a scheduling conference with the parties, the parties' request is GRANTED, in part. Doc. 15. This case is STAYED pending the disposition of the motion to transfer in the Kentucky case. The parties are DIRECTED to file a status report updating the Court on the status of the motion to transfer within 7 days of the date the motion is decided, or 120 days from the date of this Order, whichever is earlier. Additionally, the parties are DIRECTED to file a renewed Rule 26(f) Report within 14 days of the date the motion to transfer is decided.¹

SO ORDERED, this 6th day of January, 2022.

CHRISTOPHER L. RAY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

¹ The parties request a discovery deadline of 140 days after the submission of their renewed Rule 26(f) Report. That request is DENIED. Doc. 15, in part. The parties are DIRECTED to include new proposed discovery deadlines in their renewed Rule 26(f) Report.