Case No. CV614-127

ORDER

The Court GRANTS the motion of defendants Ronald A. Collins, Plantation Sweets, Inc., and Vidalia Plantation, Inc., to stay this case in light of their bankruptcies. Doc. 141. For docket-clearing purposes only, the Court DENIES as moot their motions for a protective order (doc. 113), for an extension of time within which to file an answer and respond to plaintiffs' discovery (doc. 123), and to extend discovery. Doc. 131.

The Court GRANTS the Perez defendants' (Perez Forestry, LLC's and Narciso Perez's) page-limitation motion. Doc. 128. It DENIES their motions to compel and extend discovery, docs. 123 & 129, along with plaintiff's motion to compel, doc. 98 -- without prejudice to renew them after counsel for plaintiffs and the Perezes confer.¹ Finally, plaintiffs' partial summary judgment motion (doc. 101) remains pending before the district judge; it is up to him whether to administratively deny it without prejudice to renew.

SO ORDERED, this 22nd day of July, 2016.

UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
