ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO RECONSIDER ORDER GRANTING SUMMARY JUDGMENT MOTIONS

On April 30, 2017, this Court issued its Order Granting Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on the Claims Asserted by Plaintiff RNI, N.V., L.P.; Granting Liability Portion of Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment on the Claims Asserted by Plaintiffs Charles L. Carson, Linda Knerr Carson, Ronald R. Parsons, and Joan Kelly Parsons; and Denying as Moot Remaining Motions for Summary Judgment ("4/30/17 Order"). [Dkt. no. 424.] On May 18, 2017, Plaintiffs Charles L. Carson, Linda Knerr Carson, Ronald R. Parsons, Joan Kelly Parsons (collectively "the Individual Plaintiffs"), and RNI-N.V., L.P. ("RNI," all collectively "Plaintiffs") filed a motion for reconsideration of the 4/30/17 Order ("Motion for Reconsideration"). [Dkt. no. 426.] Defendants Sidney K. Kanazawa, Esq. ("Kanazawa"), and McGuireWoods LLP (collectively "Defendants") filed their memorandum in opposition on June 1, 2017, and Plaintiffs filed their reply on June 8, 2017. [Dkt. nos. 429, 431.] The Court has considered the Motion for Reconsideration as a non-hearing matter pursuant to Rule LR7.2(e) of the Local Rules of Practice of the United States District Court for the District of Hawai'i ("Local Rules"). Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration is hereby denied for the reasons set forth below.

STANDARD

Plaintiffs bring the Motion for Reconsideration pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 59(e). [Motion for Reconsideration at 2; Mem. in Supp. of Motion for Reconsideration at 2.] Rule 59(e) states: "A motion to alter or amend a judgment must be filed no later than 28 days after the entry of the judgment." Plaintiffs may seek reconsideration pursuant to Rule 59(e), even though final judgment has not been entered in this case. See Grandinetti v. Sells, CIV. NO. 16-00517 DKW/RLP, 2016 WL 6634868, at *1 (D. Hawai`i Nov. 8, 2016) ("When a ruling has resulted in a final judgment or order . . . a motion for reconsideration may be construed as either a motion to alter or amend judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) or a motion for relief from judgment under Rule 60(b)." (citing Sch. Dist. No. 1J Multnomah Cty. v. ACandS, Inc., 5 F.3d 1255, 1262 (9th Cir. 1993))).

Rule 59(e) offers "an extraordinary remedy, to be used sparingly in the interests of finality and conservation of judicial resources." Carroll v. Nakatani, 342 F.3d 934, 945 (9th Cir. 2003) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). In the Ninth Circuit, a successful motion for reconsideration must accomplish two goals. First, "a motion for reconsideration must demonstrate some reason why the court should reconsider its prior decision." Na Mamo O `Aha `Ino v. Galiher, 60 F. Supp. 2d 1058, 1059 (D. Haw. 1999). Second, it "must set forth facts or law of a strongly convincing nature to induce the court to reverse its prior decision." Id.

Courts have established three grounds justifying reconsideration: (1) an intervening change in controlling law; (2) the availability of new evidence; and (3) the need to correct clear error or prevent manifest injustice. Allstate Ins. Co. v. Herron, 634 F.3d 1101, 1111 (9th Cir. 2011); Mustafa v. Clark County Sch. Dist., 157 F.3d 1169, 1178-79 (9th Cir. 1998). The District of Hawaii has implemented these standards in Local Rule 60.1.

United States ex rel. Atlas Copco Compressors LLC v. RWT LLC, Civ. No. 16-00215 ACK-KJM, 2017 WL 2986586, at *1 (D. Hawai`i July 13, 2017). Plaintiffs only base the Motion for Reconsideration on alleged clear error and manifest injustice.

[Mem. in Supp. of Motion for Reconsideration at 3.]

DISCUSSION

Relevant to the Motion for Reconsideration, the 4/30/17 Order granted: Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment on the Claims Asserted by Plaintiff RNI, N.V., L.P. ("Defendants' RNI Motion"); [filed 10/19/16 (dkt. no. 318);] and the liability portion of Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment on the Claims Asserted by Plaintiffs Charles L. Carson, Linda Knerr Carson, Ronald R. Parsons, and Joan Kelly Parsons ("Defendants' Individual Plaintiffs Motion"), [filed 10/19/16 (dkt. no. 322)].<sup>1</sup>

Plaintiffs first argue that this Court committed clear error in concluding that RNI released all of its claims against Centex Homes ("Centex") in 2008. Plaintiffs argue that the 2008 Release<sup>2</sup> was a general release that could not release claims that RNI was not aware of at the time. Plaintiffs assert that the 2008 Release would not have precluded RNI's claims against Centex regarding the Beach Villas amenities because the parties to the 2008 Release did not contemplate that the 2008 Release would cover such claims. Further, even if the parties to the 2008

<sup>1</sup> This Court denied three other motions for summary judgment, [dkt. nos. 316, 320, 335,] as moot. [4/30/17 Order at 71.]

Release contemplated claims regarding the Beach Villas amenities, Plaintiffs argue that this Court erred in concluding that the 2008 Release unambiguously encompassed the claims regarding the amenities. Plaintiffs therefore contend that this Court committed clear error when it concluded that "because the 2008 Release released the claims that RNI could have brought against Centex regarding the Beach Villas amenities, RNI cannot establish that any allegedly wrongful acts or omissions by Defendants caused RNI to lose the ability to bring those claims against Centex." See 4/30/17 Order at 35.

Plaintiffs next argue that this Court erred in concluding that Defendants' misconduct was not the proximate cause of the Individual Plaintiffs' injuries. This Court concluded that "the Arbitrator's and the state court's legal errors were intervening, superseding causes that prevent Defendants from being liable to the Individual Plaintiffs for erroneously including their units on Exhibit A to the 2010 Settlement Agreement."<sup>3</sup> [4/30/17 Order at 69-70.] Plaintiffs argue that this Court committed clear error because: whether an event constitutes a superseding cause is an issue of fact that this Court improperly resolved on summary judgment; this Court erred in its analysis of the tenancy by the entirety issue;<sup>4</sup> this Court made rulings about the Arbitrator's decisions without a complete record of the evidence and the arguments presented to the Arbitrator and without considering all of the theories that Centex presented to the Arbitrator; and, in concluding that arbitrator error was foreseeable, this Court failed to consider well-settled law that an arbitrator's decision can only be vacated under limited circumstances.

First, Plaintiffs' argument that this Court had an insufficient record of the proceedings before the Arbitrator fails. Plaintiffs could have presented a more complete record of the arbitration proceedings in their response to Defendants' motions for summary judgment but did not. See Wereb v. Maui Cty., 830 F. Supp. 2d 1026, 1031 (D. Hawai'i 2011) ("reconsideration may not be based on evidence and legal arguments that a movant could have presented at the time of the challenged decision" (some citations omitted) (citing Kona Enters., Inc. v. Estate of Bishop, 229 F.3d 877, 890 (9th Cir. 2000))). Moreover, Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration does not identify specific material from the arbitration proceedings which: this Court did not have when it considered Defendants' summary judgment motions; and Plaintiffs allege would have altered this Court's analysis of the motions. Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration is denied as to Plaintiffs' argument that this Court had an insufficient record of the arbitration proceedings.

All of the other arguments in Plaintiffs' Motion for Reconsideration are arguments that they previously raised - and this Court considered - in connection with Defendants' RNI Motion and Defendants' Individual Plaintiffs' Motion. Plaintiffs' disagreement with this Court's rulings and their disappointment in the outcome of this case are not grounds for reconsideration. See Barnes v. Sea Hawaii Rafting, LLC, 16 F. Supp. 3d 1171, 1183 (D. Hawai'i 2014) ("Mere disagreement with a previous order is an insufficient basis for reconsideration." (citation omitted)). The Motion for Reconsideration is denied as to Plaintiffs' attempts to re-litigate issues that this Court considered in ruling on the underlying motions.

Plaintiffs have failed to establish that this Court committed clear error in the 4/30/17 Order or that reconsideration of the order is necessary to prevent manifest injustice.

CONCLUSION

On the basis of the foregoing, Plaintiffs' Motion to Reconsider Order Granting Summary Judgment Motions, filed May 18, 2017, is HEREBY DENIED. The Clerk's Office is DIRECTED to enter final judgment immediately. Judgment is in favor of Defendants as to all claims, pursuant to this Court's April 30, 2017 order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED AT HONOLULU, HAWAII, August 8, 2017.
