FIRST ARGUMENT FOR AMICUS
CONSIDERATION AND VENUE
JUDICIAL DISTRICT CHANGE

THIS HONORABLE COURT FAILED TO ENGAGE IN THE THRESHOLD CERTIFICATION
OF ITS AUTHORITY TO ADJUDICATE PLAINTIFFS' BAD FAITH EMERGENCY MOTION
FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER. AUTHORITY TO ADJUDICATE IS AN INITIAL AND ONGOING PROCESS. JURISDICTION OVER THE PARTIES MUST BE LAWFULLY ESTABLISHED. STANDING TO SUE MUST BE SUBSTANTIATED AND VENUE MUST BE IN ACCORDANCE TO THE MANDATE OF OUR LEGISLATURE - UNITED STATES CONGRESS. BASED ON INFORMATION AND BELIEF THE ATTORNEY GENERALS FOR

THE STATES OF WASHINGTON AND MINNESOTA RUSHED THIS HONORABLE COURT INTO MAKING A FATAL JURISDICTIONAL ERROR. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, PARTICULARLY MR. ROBERT FERGUSON, ATTORNEY GENERAL FOR THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, ENGAGING IN FORUM SHOPPING, IN BAD FAITH, INTENTIONALLY FILED THIS MATTER IN EASTERN WASHINGTON IN VIOLATION OF RULE 11 OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

FISH-EYES REVIEW OR CONSIDERATION OF THE OBVIOUS MISCONDUCT STRONGLY SUGGEST THAT MR. FERGUSON HAD TO KNOW THAT HE WAS VIOLATING FEDERAL LAW AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROTOCOL. MR. FERGUSON OR THE STATES OF WASHINGTON OR MINNESOTA SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO BENEFIT FROM ITS MISCONDUCT UNDER COLOR OF LAW. DEFENDANT DONALD JOHN TRUMP IS AN OFFICIAL RESIDENT OF THE WHITE HOUSE AND THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. HE HAS NEVER BEEN A RESIDENT OF MINNESOTA OR THE STATE OF WASHINGTON. JURISDICTION IS NOT PROPER IN EASTERN WASHINGTON DISTRICT COURT OR ANYWHERE IN THE NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT BECAUSE ALL ARTICLE III ALLEGATIONS OF CONSTITUTIONAL MISCONDUCT OR CONSTITUTIONAL VIOLATIONS OR DEPRIVATIONS ORIGINATED IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. VENUE IS ALSO WARRANTED IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA BECAUSE OF DIVERSITY, WHETHER AGENCY OR PERSONAL. SEE, 28 USC, SECTION 1331(b)(2). SEE ALSO, CHAPMAN VS. OBAMA, ET, AL., 1:16-cv-01763, ON PAGE THREE(3) DISCUSSING STANDING AND VENUE.

THERE IS NO LOGICAL OR REASONABLE THINKING THAT COULD MOTIVATE ANY LEGAL PRACTITIONER TO SUE DEFENDANT TRUMP IN ANY OTHER VENUE OTHER THAN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. THE PLAINTIFFS' LESS THAN HONEST MOTIVES ARE SANCTIONABLE MISCONDUCT. SEE, FRCP, RULE 11, ET, AL. SANCTIONS ARE CLEARLY WARRANTED AND TO DO LESS CONSTITUTES AFFIRMING MR. FERGUSON AND THE STATES OF WASHINGTON AND MINNESOTA'S MISCONDUCT. MISCONDUCT

AFFIRMED IS STILL MISCONDUCT.

WHEN A CASE IS FILED IN THE WRONG VENUE, WHETHER BY Oversight, ACCIDENT OR AS WE HAVE HERE, A BAD FAITH LITIGATION TACTIC, A DISTRICT COURT HAS LIMITED DISCRETION TO EXERCISE ONLY TWO, OR ONE OF TWO CHOICES. THE DISTRICT COURT CAN EITHER EXERCISE ITS DISCRETION AND DISMISS THE CASE WITHOUT PREJUDICE OR THE DISTRICT COURT CAN PROMPTLY TRANSFER THE CASE TO THE PROPER FEDERAL COURT IN THE "INTEREST OF JUSTICE". See, TOVAR V. CUELLAR, 2016 U.S. DIST. LEXIS 82594 (JUNE 23, 2016) (CA-9). See ALSO, 28 USC, SECTION 1406(a). THE FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT IS WITHOUT ANY OTHER OPTIONS. WHAT THIS HONORABLE COURT FAILED TO DO WAS VERIFY ITS JURISDICTION, VENUE AND AUTHORITY TO OPERATE. THERE IS NO ROOM IN THIS CASE FOR AN ALTERNATE APPLICATION OF WELL-SETLED JURISPRUDENTIAL PROTOCOL. ALSO, REVERSABLE AND INVALIDATED STANDING TO RULE, STATUS OR AUTHORITY IS SUBSTANTIAL. See ATTACHED MEDIA NARRATIVE (USA TODAY) MADE A PART HEREOF.

AS SET FORTH HEREIN AND LAWFULLY WORTH REPEATING, VENUE IS ONLY PROPER IN A JUDICIAL DISTRICT IN WHICH DEFENDANT, HONORABLE DONALD JOHN TRUMP, SR., RESIDES. AS OF JANUARY 20, 2017, AT THE HOUR OF 12:01 PM, DEFENDANT WAS AND IS AN OFFICIAL RESIDENT OF 1600 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, NORTH WEST, WASHINGTON, DC 20500-0001. THE WHITE HOUSE IS LAWFULLY SITUATED IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA'S JUDICIAL DISTRICT. IT'S COURT OF APPEAL IS ALSO IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

ACCORDINGLY, THIS HIGHLY UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCE REQUIRES IMMEDIATE CORRECTIVE MEASURES. JURISDICTIONAL ERRORS OF CONSTITUTIONAL DIMENSIONS MAKES ANY AND ALL ORDERS ENTERED IN THE DISTRICT COURT

And in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals void and a nullity as a matter of law. A dismissal without prejudice is required protocol of the United States Constitution. See, IN RE HALL, 939 F.2d 802, 804 (9th Cir. 1991).

Wherefore, Amicus Petitioner, L'AMAR CHRISTOPHER CHAPMAN, III, Atto, ISBC, Ph.ESD., EMPIRICAL, LAUREATE, JURISTICIAN™, "PROLIFIC LITIGATOR", IN PROPRIA PERSONA, verily prays that this Honorable Court will dismiss this matter with prejudice as a Rule 11 sanction for the misconduct set forth herein; vacate any and all orders of the United States District Court which has the lawful effect of causing any and all appellate court decisions, orders and opinions to be lawfully moot and grant such further relief entitled to Honorable, Mr. Donald John Trump, Sr., and the people of the United States of America. God Bless This Honorable Court. God Bless America!

Very Respectfully Submitted

Christopher de la Mare Chapman, III, Atto, ISBC, Ph.ESD.

Legal intrigue for revised travel ban

Trump could slow appeal to get Gorsuch on Supreme Court

Alan Gomez
USA TODAY

President Trump vowed to take the legal fight over his temporary travel ban targeting majority-Muslim countries all the way to the Supreme Court. Now, in the wake of a second judicial repudiation, some legal experts say Trump's lawyers may slow down an appeal until his Supreme Court nominee is confirmed and can provide a decisive vote.

After a federal judge in Hawaii issued a nationwide temporary restraining order Wednesday, the next logical step is an appeal to the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco, where a three-judge panel ruled against Trump's first version of the ban last month. Trump's lawyers also might go to the 4th Circuit appeals court in Richmond, Va., to try to overturn a separate order blocking the ban issued by a U.S. judge in Maryland Thursday.

The final appeal would be the Supreme Court. The problem with that step is the court is currently deadlocked, 4-4, along ideological lines since the death of Justice Antonin Scalia 13 months ago, and a tie vote would leave the appeals court ruling in place.

A way around a deadlock is to wait for Trump's court nominee, appeals court judge Neil Gorsuch, to join the bench. The Senate is scheduled to begin hearings on his nomination next week. Confirmation in the Republican-controlled Senate could require several more weeks — assuming Democrats don't employ rules that would stall the nomination.

"The wisest course is to appeal the ruling, get the bad decision we all expect from the 9th Circuit, and then hopefully get to the Supreme Court with Gorsuch already confirmed," said Hans von Spakovsky, a senior legal fellow at the Heritage Foundation, a conservative think tank in Washington, D.C., that advises the Trump administration.

The department has given little indication of how it will defend Trump's revised ban. In a statement Wednesday night, the department said it was reviewing its options and promised to "defend this Executive Order in the courts."

The White House says the order is necessary to give the government time to develop extreme vetting procedures for people from six terror-prone countries and prevent terrorists from infiltrating the U.S. through the legal immigration system or the refugee program. On Thursday, White House press secretary Sean Spicer said Justice was reviewing the "legal strategy and timing" of the upcoming appeals, vowing that they would begin "soon."

"The danger is real and the law is clear: the president was elected to change our broken immigration system and he will continue to exercise his constitutional authority and presidential responsibility to protect our nation," Spicer said.

The order, signed March 6, bars citizens of Iran, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria and Yemen for 90 days and all refugees for 120 days. It made significant changes from the first order imposed Jan. 27 — removing Iraq, ending an indefinite suspension of Syrian immigration and allowing foreigners of those countries who hold valid visas or legal permanent residence (known as a green card) to continue traveling.

U.S. District Judge Derrick Watson in Hawaii blocked the revised order hours before it was set to go into effect on the grounds that it violates constitutional protections of religion by targeting Muslims.

The administration showed its reluctance to take its case to the Supreme Court last month.

Justin Cox, an attorney with the National Immigration Law Center who successfully argued before the judge in Maryland, said any attempts by Justice to slow-walk the appeals process would show a glaring problem with the order.

"The slower they walk it, the more they undermine their already-weak claims that this is an urgent matter of national security," Cox said. "It wouldn't surprise me."

*About the Author**

Lamar C. Chapman III is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Christopher LaSalle and Company, Incorporated and LaSalle Companies, Incorporated – business holding organizations concentrating in developing and trading unregistered partnerships and closely held enterprises. LaSalle Companies is a privately held firm. Through a network of independently operating companies, contractors and affiliates, LaSalle Companies operate in major and international markets offering business, corporate and professional services with annual revenues, earnings, sales and billing undisclosed.

Prior to joining LaSalle, Mr. Chapman held executive level positions with the consulting firm ADESCO, Federal Express Corporation, Greyhound/Dial Corporation, the Charles R. Walgreen Corporation, and the Ford Motor Corporation. He has traveled extensively throughout the Nation and internationally consulting on the application of marketing and concentrating in the area of privately held business ownership, structure and development. He has been named Who's Who in U.S. Executives for 1991, 1992, 1993, and 1994, and Who's Who in Mid-West marketing for the same period. After reviewing Mr. Chapman's business operation, an astonished response from Mr. Chapman's former employer is worth repeating: "Who let that man quit? This man is smarter than anyone of you sitting here!" - Quoting Fredrick W. Smith, Chairman and Founder – Federal Express Corporation. The Greyhound Corporation says about Mr. Chapman's tenure: "Whatever he wants or you need to offer him to get him to stay, give it to him!" – Fred Donakowski, President Greyhound, Incorporated. George Paganis, Sr., Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of ADESCO made Mr. Chapman a multi-year, million dollar offer to continue in his capacity with ADESCO as a business consultant. Lamar C. Chapman III started from humble beginnings<sup>1</sup>.

Mr. Chapman has studied at the University of Illinois, the University of Chicago and is an alumnus of the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland, Class of 1975, as appointed by the late Richard Milhous Nixon - Thirty-seventh President of the United States. He has been divinely distinguished and ordained with sacerdotal doctorates in business; law; and systematic philosophy. He is a former undefeated U.S. Naval Featherweight Boxing Champion and Mrs. Dwight D. [Mamie] Eisenhower's 1972, and 1976, United States Olympic Boxing Team designee. Mr. Chapman is also a recipient of the United States Navy National Defense Medal; U.S. Navy Sharpshooter (Rifle); and Expert Pistol Awards. More than twenty (20) years after his Honorable Discharge from military service, in November 1995, Mr. Chapman was first eligible and invited for induction and membership into the prestigious United States Naval Institute.

As an author, Mr. Chapman has written and developed sales training and marketing courses such as Basic Telemarketing Skills and Practical Selling Skills for a national courier company. He has authored a number of published articles and self-published "custom mini-books" including anonymously crafted advertisement, speeches and documents for commercial application and for prominent business executives and leaders. As a "God-gifted Litigator," and victorious against the top two percent (banks, insurance companies and the government)<sup>2</sup> Mr. Chapman has written for every level of the State and Federal Judiciary including the Illinois and United States Supreme Courts; the United States Court of Federal Claims; and the United States Senate – Judiciary Subcommittee. As a Legal Facilitator,™ Bureaucratic Critic,™ plaintiff and author of numerous "Public Interest Litigation," and adversarial pursuits, Mr. Chapman's whistle blowing efforts and persistent highlighting of "official misconduct" in a downstate Illinois Courthouse was instrumental in the State overturning more than 250 criminal convictions and Honorable Governor George Ryan placing a Moratorium on the death penalty in the State of Illinois.

Although he has no aspiration to practice law or formal training in the practice of law, in April, 1991, as a Certified Legal Entrepreneur® Mr. Chapman was awarded the largest judgment ever awarded by the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois – First Municipal District, Honorable Angelo D. Mistretta, Judge Presiding. With more than two (2) decades of practical civil litigation experience under his belt, Mr. Chapman has more than eighty-three (83) legal opinions published in cases he has personally litigated. He has been victorious over some of the Nation's most prominent and prestigious law firms. John F. Grady, Senior U.S. District Judge writes: "Mr. Chapman is a prolific litigator in this judicial district." Arlander Keys, Presiding Magistrate for the United States District Court says: "Mr. Chapman's legal writing and strategy is simply brilliant." Chief District Judge Marvin E. Aspen writes: "Mr. Chapman has cut a wide swath<sup>3</sup> through the federal court system." The United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit seated in Denver, Colorado writes: "Appellant is a sophisticated legal writer and we very seldom see this degree of legal sophistication at this level of the judiciary." In a landmark, unprecedented "tortuous peregrination", Mr. Chapman's "Crown of Life" and "persecution style" lobbying caused a Chief Federal Judge to abruptly offer his resignation (March 28, 2006,) to President George W. Bush with years left on the judicial administrator's appointed term in office. As noted in this foreordained "victory" Mr. Chapman has been and continues to be "officially victimized" and subjected to retaliatory and Godless judicial civil rights abuse resulting from the judge's involuntary and circumstantial "family hardship" resignation.

Martin C. Ashman, U.S. Magistrate Judge says: "Mr. Chapman is doing nothing more than what the law allows." Samuel King, Chief U. S. District Judge, Emeritus, Honolulu, Hawaii at a civil pretrial conference held in September 1997, says: "Mr. Chapman's legal ability is amazing." Brian Barnett Duff, U.S. Judge states from the Bench: "Mr. Chapman is handsome, well-dressed, and articulate with a flair for words." Wayne R. Andersen, U.S. Judge states from the Bench: "...Most lawyers don't want to be on the other side of Mr. Chapman's case." The Executive Committee of the U. S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division Chief Judge Charles P. Kocoras, presiding (September 2002,) places Mr. Chapman's legal pleadings under an "in camera" closed court, unconstitutionally heighten standard of scrutiny and preview. U.S. District Judge Joan B. Gottschall states from the Bench "... it is apparent that Plaintiff [Mr. Chapman] is more knowledgeable on the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure than Counsel for his opponents." Jack B. Schmetterer, Federal Judge writes in a published opinion: "Mr. Chapman destroys his opponents' will to fight. He wins based on having the lowest cost." Unlawfully "Legislating from the Bench," Mr. Chapman received a retaliatory judicial appointment to the Federal Bureau of Prisons' "Disciplinary Purpose" Committee by Judge James B. Zagel. Honorable Mimi Brin, Chief Administrative Law Judge (Acting), Illinois Department of Revenue states: "Mr. Chapman you are a smart man - smarter than smart." Mr. Alberto Gonzales, U.S. Attorney resigned twenty-eight months after Chapman's first complaint to U. S. Senate Judiciary Sub-Committee. Sr. Judge, George W. Lindberg, writes that "Mr. Chapman is a highly sophisticated litigant." Chapman is also a 1995 involuntary inductee into the "Posner Project." Sr. Judge, Milton I. Shadur in September 1986, (Case Number 86 C 6001) after a lengthy civil hearing refused to pierce Chapman's Corporate Vail and that Court found "Mr. Chapman to be ingenious."

Mr. Chapman is a recipient of a Presidential (Richard M. Nixon) Appointment; a Congressional (William L. Dawson) Nomination; a Gubernatorial (Richard B. Ogilvie) Military Commission; and Judicial (Honorable Francis Barth) Appointment. Mr. Chapman is also a registered and authorized United States Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service taxpayer advocate, representative and practitioner. He has been recognized by the City of Chicago and The Chicago Board of Education for his voluntary work in their drop-out prevention programs. He formerly served the People of Cook County as a Republican Judge of Elections as appointed by the presiding judge for the Circuit Court of Cook County, County Department - County Division. He serves as Founding and Executive Director of Judicial Watch, LAWYER, PRO SE,™ and America's Academy for Prison Reform, not-for-profit civic organizations founded to serve humanity, educate, inform and assist the less fortunate. Mr. Chapman is also the recipient of the prestigious Instrumentalist Magazine Merit Award for his fundraising efforts and has been inducted into the "Hinsdale Most Wanted" - a prestigious charitable organization of wealthy Oak Brook/Hinsdale business leaders and philanthropist serving special needs children in DuPage County. He's recognized by schools and institutions of higher learning for his generous equipment donations. An experienced business analyst, consulting for and member of the board of directors for a broad range of closely or privately held and middle market companies in food service, marketing, advertising, legal, finance, career resources, transportation, security, distribution, manufacturing, fabrication, retailing, publishing and government sales. Lamar C. Chapman III, Solo Fides™ is a Spirit-Filled Believer, Founder and Chief Fundraising Officer of Spiritually Yours™ - a not-for-profit and self-sustaining Ministry of LaSalle Companies.

In his divinely covenant "Priestcraft" Mr. Chapman answered our Creator's Call on his heart on July 11, 1991. As a passionate theologian and rabbi, he studies and teaches the Word of God daily as inspired by some of our Nation's most prolific Spiritual scholars offered by The Moody Bible Institute - WMBI Network. He regularly speaks to our youth on a pro bono basis on only one subject: "Overcoming Peer Pressure, Gangsmanship, Drugs and Street Traps by Living the Victorious Spirit-Filled Life." He has sermoned from the Pulpits of the University of Chicago historic John D. Rockefeller Memorial Chapel and the University of Chicago Bond Chapel. Mr. Chapman has been married to his "eight-grade" sweetheart - Vanessa Marie, for more than thirty-four (34) uninterrupted years, together, as decreed "for better or for worse" their blessings include two college educated adult daughters; two divinely appointed sons-in-law; three gifted granddaughters; a healthy, wisdom-filled eighty-two (82) year old Matriarch. GOD IS GOOD!
