Ι.	Page 18		Page 20
1	Q. So is your statement there are no facts	1	With respect to Paragraph 8
2	in the affidavit that support that 7 to 10	2	Mr. Troupis, there, apparently, is supposed to be
3	percent crossover effect number other than your	3	an Exhibit A.
4	instincts and experience?	4	MR. TROUPIS: There was on the original
5	A. Hence the word "figure."	5	one that was submitted. It was a transcript of
6	Q. All right. I'm going to ask you about	6	two radio ads, but it wasn't transcribed. They
7	some senators and ask you whether or not they	7	were audio, and they were submitted with the
8	are, in your view, Republicans.	8	original.
9	Senator Goedde, G-o-e-d-d-e?	9	MR. SMITH: I gotcha.
10	A. Whether he is a Republican?	10	Okay, that concludes my examination.
11	Q. Yes, sir.	11	Mr. Kresky?
12	A. His positive actions where he has run	12
13	as a Republican, he delineates himself as a	13	EXAMINATION
14	Republican.	14	QUESTIONS BY MR. KRESKY:
15	Q. Do you consider him	15	Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Maxwell.
16	A. My interpretation of him with his	16	A. Hello.
17	voting records, I would call him a "RINO."	17	Q. So, I take it, the objective of the IRP
18	Q. Meaning, a "Republican in name only"?	17	in this lawsuit is to institute partisan
19	A. Yes. That's my interpretation.	19	registration, correct?
20	Q. Thank you. How about then-Senator	20	•
20	Little, now Lieutenant Governor Little?	20	A. Closed primaries, party registration;
	,		you can go a variety of ways to do that, as many
22	A. He's got a little work to do, in my	22	states have.
23	humble opinion.	23	Q. And if you have partisan registration,
24	Q. Is he a Republican or not?	24	then a voter has to declare himself or herself a
25	A. His positive actions he delineates	25	Republican at some point in the process in order
	Page 19		Page 21
1	-		-
	THITSELL AS A REDUDICALL. MY ITLEIDIELAUOL, LIE	1	to participate in the primary, correct?
2	himself as a Republican. My interpretation, the iury's still out.	1 2	to participate in the primary, correct? A. Affirmative, ves.
2	jury's still out.	2	A. Affirmative, yes.
3	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee?	2 3	A. Affirmative, yes.Q. And then only those people who declare
3 4	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area?	2 3 4	A. Affirmative, yes.Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right?
3 4 5	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir.	2 3 4 5	A. Affirmative, yes.Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right?A. Yes.
3 4 5 6	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out	2 3 4 5 6	A. Affirmative, yes.Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right?A. Yes.Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian
3 4 5 6 7	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only.	2 3 4 5 6 7	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in
3 4 5 6 7 8	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct?
3 4 5 6 7 8 9	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes.
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct?
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes.
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary?
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? A. Um-hmm. 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I believe it opens up in March, is a guess, and on
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? A. Um-hmm. Q. I'm sorry, your answer is? You have to 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I believe it opens up in March, is a guess, and on your declaration of candidacy you write down
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? A. Um-hmm. Q. I'm sorry, your answer is? You have to answer yes or no, sir.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I believe it opens up in March, is a guess, and on your declaration of candidacy you write down which party you choose to run under or
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? A. Um-hmm. Q. I'm sorry, your answer is? You have to answer yes or no, sir. A. Well, I just affirmed that he had run 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I believe it opens up in March, is a guess, and on your declaration of candidacy you write down which party you choose to run under or Independent.
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? A. Um-hmm. Q. I'm sorry, your answer is? You have to answer yes or no, sir. A. Well, I just affirmed that he had run as I ublican. 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I believe it opens up in March, is a guess, and on your declaration of candidacy you write down which party you choose to run under or Independent. Q. March 5th for a May primary, correct?
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? A. Um-hmm. Q. I'm sorry, your answer is? You have to answer yes or no, sir. A. Well, I just affirmed that he had run m. MR. SMITH: I'm going to object, for 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I believe it opens up in March, is a guess, and on your declaration of candidacy you write down which party you choose to run under or Independent. Q. March 5th for a May primary, correct?
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? A. Um-hmm. Q. I'm sorry, your answer is? You have to answer yes or no, sir. A. Well, I just affirmed that he had run as Ilublican. MR. SMITH: I'm going to object, for the record, to Paragraph 7 as a conclusion and an	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I believe it opens up in March, is a guess, and on your declaration of candidacy you write down which party you choose to run under or Independent. Q. March 5th for a May primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. Thank you.
3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	 jury's still out. Q. I see. How about Senator McGee? A. From the Caldwell area? Q. Yes, sir. A. I'd give him a jury-still-out classification, again, my interpretation only. Q. He, of course, ran as a Republican; is that correct? A. He has made positive moves and runs as a Republican, yes. Q. How about Senator Bart Davis; is he a Republican? A. Bart Davis is interesting. I wouldn't have a clue what he is. Q. I see. And he, nonetheless, has run as a Republican and been elected as a Republican? A. Um-hmm. Q. I'm sorry, your answer is? You have to answer yes or no, sir. A. Well, I just affirmed that he had run m. MR. SMITH: I'm going to object, for 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	 A. Affirmative, yes. Q. And then only those people who declare themselves such could participate, right? A. Yes. Q. And, I take it, that Mr. Bastian declared himself a Republican in order to run in a Republican Primary, correct? A. Yes. Q. And he had to do so sometime before the day of the election, correct? A. Yes. Q. I'm not that familiar with the Idaho election code. Do you know how many days before you have to declare your candidacy in a particular primary? A. I'll give you a rough estimation. I believe it opens up in March, is a guess, and on your declaration of candidacy you write down which party you choose to run under or Independent. Q. March 5th for a May primary, correct?

(208)345-9611

6 (Pages 18 to 21)

(208)345-8800 (fax)

Summary of Comments on Maxwell Deposition.ptx

Page: 6

Number: 1 Author: user Objection to Maxwell Affidavit

Subject: Sticky Note Date: 10/2/2010 4:27:01 PM

Author: lwinmill Subject: Sticky Note I Sustained. Conclusory and unsopported opinon. Date: 10/12/2010 7:28:42 AM

	Page 30		Page 32
1	crossovers would not be voting in the primary to	1	😴 💭. Would you be surprised to know that
2	skew the numbers.	2	Professors Alvarez and Nagler concluded that
3	Q. But you said your people did appeal to	3	virtually all of the scholarly research in the
4	the conservative base and they ran conservative	4	area supports that there is, on average, 10
5	campaigns, so I don't see	5	percent crossover in all open primary contested
6	A. Yes. And the counter to the crossover	6	elections?
7	was additional campaign activity to overcome for	7	MR. SMITH: Objection, calls for
8	the deficits, basically a mathematical deficit in	8	speculation. Also, it calls for a response that
9	the voting.	9	is immaterial to any issue in the case.
10	What they needed to do was more GOTV,	10	Q. (BY MR. TROUPIS) Mr. Maxwell, would
11	i.e., that is, "Get Out The Vote" in political	11	you be surprised to know that at least Professors
12	vernacular, in order to overcome that 7 to 10	12	Alvarez and Nagler state that the scholarly
13	percent mathematical deficit.	13	research bears you out on your gut feeling?
14	•	14
	Q. Sir, are you saying that the US District Court should order Idaho to institute	14	A. Well, I don't know how to answer yes or
15			no. I'm pleased to know that their numbers and
16	partisan registration so that your guys don't	16	their game theories, or whatever mathematics
17	have to work as hard in their "Get Out The Vote"	17	they've done, confirm my gut feeling, yes.
18	efforts?	18	Q. Thanks.
19	A. I'm not an attorney, but the Federal	19	MR. TROUPIS: I don't have any further
20	Court, in my humble opinion, should order it done	20	questions. We'll have him read and sign.
21	for party registration for the mere fact that the	21	MR. SMITH: Okay.
22	Republican Central Committee has voted to do so	22	MR. TROUPIS: Mr. Maxwell, we're going
23	under the First Amendment rights.	23	to have the transcript provided to you so you can
24	And, frankly, why they choose to do	24	review it and make any corrections that you want,
25	that, it is, in my opinion, of no concern to the	25	ask you to sign it under penalty of perjury; is
	Page 31		Page 33
1	court. They've chosen to exercise their First	1	that okay?
2	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period.	2	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine.
2 3	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should	2 3	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very
2 3 4	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is	2 3 4	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving
2 3 4 5	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying?	2 3 4 5	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly.
2 3 4	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is	2 3 4	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving
2 3 4 5	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying?	2 3 4 5	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly.
2 3 4 5 6	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get	2 3 4 5	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again.
2 3 4 5 6 7	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United 	2 3 4 5 6 7	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. KRESKY: Okay. I have no further 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. KRESKY: Okay. I have no further questions.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. KRESKY: Okay. I have no further 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	 court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. KRESKY: Okay. I have no further questions. MR. TROUPIS: I've just got one. 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. KRESKY: Okay. I have no further questions. MR. TROUPIS: I've just got one. EXAMINATION	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. KRESKY: Okay. I have no further questions. MR. TROUPIS: I've just got one. EXAMINATION QUESTIONS BY MR. TROUPIS:	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. KRESKY: Okay. I have no further questions. MR. TROUPIS: I've just got one. EXAMINATION QUESTIONS BY MR. TROUPIS: Q. Mr. Maxwell, you refer to this 7 to 10	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. TROUPIS: I've just got one. EXAMINATION QUESTIONS BY MR. TROUPIS: Q. Mr. Maxwell, you refer to this 7 to 10 percent your gut feeling that there's about a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. KRESKY: Okay. I have no further questions. MR. TROUPIS: I've just got one. EXAMINATION QUESTIONS BY MR. TROUPIS: Q. Mr. Maxwell, you refer to this 7 to 10 percent your gut feeling that there's about a 7 to 10 percent crossover; is that right?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	court. They've chosen to exercise their First Amendment rights, period. Q. So you think the Federal Court should take its direction from the Republican Party; is that what you're saying? A. No. The Federal Court should get direction from the Constitution of the United States. Q. Which should do what the Republican Party wants; is that what the Constitution says? A. My interpretation of the First Amendment and MR. SMITH: I think, Harry, we can stipulate Mr. Maxwell's not an attorney. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. TROUPIS: Yes. MR. TROUPIS: I've just got one. EXAMINATION QUESTIONS BY MR. TROUPIS: Q. Mr. Maxwell, you refer to this 7 to 10 percent your gut feeling that there's about a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	that okay? THE WITNESS: That's fine. MR. SMITH: Mr. Maxwell, thanks very much for your time. And you will be receiving the deposition for review, and sign promptly. Thanks again. (Deposition concluded at 12:00 p.m.)

Page: 9

