Case No. 1:14-cv-00256-REB

ORDER

On November 20, 2014, the Court ordered Plaintiff to effect service of process of his Amended Complaint and Renewed Motion for Preliminary Injunction upon Defendants. (Dkt. 22.) Plaintiff has only recently indicated that he served the Amended Complaint and Renewed Motion for Preliminary Injunction upon the medical defendants.¹ Because Plaintiff's medical conditions and treatment likely have changed within the past six months, the Court will deem the current motion moot and require Plaintiff to file a Second Renewed Motion for Preliminary Injunction that specifies why Plaintiff believes he is entitled to a preliminary injunction in the context of the current treatment he has received over the past six months. If some of Plaintiff's claims are no longer at issue, he should omit the claims from the second renewed preliminary injunction motion.

Plaintiff also seeks an extension of time in which to pay the filing fee. Good cause appearing, the motion will be granted.

Plaintiff has also filed a Motion for Discovery. However, discovery requests should not be filed with the Court, but exchanged between the parties by mail. The Court is not involved in discovery, unless a motion to compel discovery is filed. However, the parties need to make their best efforts to consult with one another to resolve discovery disputes before bringing a motion to compel. Because it should not be on the Court's docket, the discovery request shall be stricken. No further discovery requests shall be submitted to the Clerk of Court for filing.
