

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF IDAHO

TOLLEF H. REYERSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

CAROLYN W. COLVIN,

Defendant.

Case No. 4:13-cv-00185-BLW-REB

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED: ALL MATTERS in the above case are referred to United States Magistrate Judge Ronald E. Bush. Judge Bush is directed to conduct all necessary and proper proceedings pertaining thereto.

If the matter is a non-dispositive motion, Judge Bush is directed to enter an appropriate order as to disposition. A party contending the order is clearly erroneous or contrary to law shall file written objections with the court within fourteen (14) days. 28 U.S.C §636(b)(1)(A); Local Rule 72.1.

If the matter is a dispositive motion, Judge Bush may conduct any hearings, including evidentiary hearings and submit to the United States District Court proposed findings of fact and recommendations as to disposition.

A party objecting to the proposed findings and recommendations shall file written objections with the court within fourteen (14) days. The Court will make a de novo
