Plaintiff,

v.

BATTELLE ENERGY ALLIANCE,
LLC,

Case No. 4:14-cv-00294-BLW

ORDER

In a conference call with the Court's staff, counsel discussed various discovery disputes. The Court has been fully informed of the positions of counsel and will resolve these issues below. Accordingly,

3. Simmons is free to file a motion for contempt, but no discovery will be allowed on that motion until Battelle's motion for relief from protective order is resolved.
4. Battelle shall file a supplemental discovery response concerning the issues discussed at the conference, specifically, the medical records, transcribed interviews, handwritten notes, disciplinary records, and SAR.

5. Plaintiff shall provide the Court with the consent of Jody Stanton to release her deposition from a Protective Order signed by Judge Lodge and the Court will inquire of Judge Lodge whether he wants to release that deposition from the Protective Order.
