STATEMENT

Parties are ordered to adhere to the following discovery schedule:

1. Iran shall produce to Plaintiffs, by September 10, 2012, all documents sought in Plaintiffs' First Request for Production of Documents to Defendant the Islamic Republic of Iran that have not yet been produced, including without limitation the following: (a) all responsive documents that have been created or have come into Iran's possession, custody, or control subsequent to its prior production; and (b) the documents from the US-Iran Claims Tribunal, as previously ordered on July 26, 2007 (R. 281). This requirement does not apply to Document Requests 5, 6, 8, 9, or 10. If no further production is required, Iran must state affirmatively that its search did not reveal any further responsive documents.
2. Within 20 days after Iran has complied with Paragraph 1 above, any party may serve any other party with requests for production of documents and interrogatories regarding the immunity issue. Parties are not authorized to serve written discovery requests after this 20-day deadline.
3. If a discovery request is timely served in accordance with Paragraph 2 above, the party served with the written discovery request must respond within 30 days.
4. Plaintiffs may at any time notice the depositions of the University of Chicago, the Field Museum, and Iran regarding the immunity issue. Any deposition of Iran's witnesses must take place in The Hague, provided that Iran pays Plaintiffs' resulting expenses, as provided in the September 9, 2009 order (R. 421). Plaintiffs must complete all depositions by February 15, 2013.
5. Once oral discovery is complete, the court will close discovery in this matter and return the case to the assigned District Judge unless a party files a motion for supplemental discovery. If the movant shows good cause,
