STATEMENT

On June 6, 2006, the court referred the matter of appropriate sanctions for Defendants' contumacious acts to Magistrate Judge Mason. Judge Mason is to review whatever documents, or hold whatever evidentiary hearings he finds necessary, in order to make a recommendation to the court regarding what sanctions are appropriate. On June 26, 2006, Judge Mason requested copies of documents related to the contempt proceedings so that he could issue a recommendation on that issue. Since the court has referred this matter to Judge Mason, all parties should file motions or documents related to the matter of sanctions before Judge Mason.
