GSMIC 0001	"George S. May – UNETHICAL TRADE SECRETS REVEALED! Park Ridge Illinois *UPDATE EX-employee responds...Its time to overcome the shame and stand for the truth"
GSMIC 0001	"In doing so, one should acknowledge almost immediately that this "consulting" agency is conducting business in a manner that is felonious and illicit at its core"	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A."
GSMIC 0001-0002	"First, instruction and training by George S. May International Company personnel (mainly by Ms. Gill, Bruce Unangst, and Dave Barry) is conducted in manner than encourages and fosters deception on the part of the employee. From the first day, especially for those trainees in the "Executive Analyst" position, it is taught that you MUST be able to denigrate your client with cleverness and tact. Belittling the business owner is the first step to success in the George S. May handbook."	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A."
GSMIC 0002	"George S. May employees are trained extensively in psychology and the art of theatrical performance to make a point. So much so, that analyst trainees are instructed to purchase reading glasses for use in the field not only make themselves look more studious but to also have	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A."

	a prop to throw on clients' desks when making an exaggerated observation about an exposed business flaw. Moreover, trainees are also instructed when and how to abruptly open and shut their "manuals" (black note books) in disgust or contempt while having dialogue with the client."
GSMIC 0002	"If the "Management Council" (which is really one SENEX) is not available right away to take a call, George May trainers actually suggest picking up the phone receiver and talking to a dial tone or silence from a held call."	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A."
GSMIC 0006	"As you can see, it is quite dated and rambling to say the least. Most of all, it is misleading; especially when the "2:1" ratio section is acted out in front of the business owner. George S. May's intent is to promise this return but it will hardly ever be truly realized. Staff analysts at corporate headquarters in Chicago are instructed to manipulate any and all variables to show this return regardless of its accuracy. The majority of the time, their "2:1" proof" is tainted with erroneous errors that are not easily recognizable by the average business owner."	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A."
GSMIC 0006	"George S. May's modus operandi is "show all problems in dollars lost in profit," even if the calculations are misleading	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A." and overstated.

GSMIC 0007	"In my tenure with George S. May, I saw (and presented) numerous erroneous calculations based on labor productivity that were given to me by the SENEX, Bruce Unangst. When confronting him with his errors on several occasions, I was told to "shut up and be a team player...just present the number."	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A."
GSMIC 0007	"Every analyst is instructed by the SENEX to over exaggerate and overstate the severity of all flaws that pertain to the business and employees being studied." "George S. May implies during training, especially by Ms. Gill, that promises and half truths are fine as long as a "go ahead" is obtained."	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A."
GSMIC 0008	"Lastly, "larceny" is an admirable trait that is a prerequisite for any successful George S. May analyst (according to the company's teachings). Incredibly, George May SENEX, Dave Barry, instructs his students on a weekly basis of this fact...He is quick to gloss over the "unlawful" aspect of such act, but as he says, "depriving a business owner of his cash-on-hand is vital to George S. May's operations." "Students are instructed to promise that a "special team" of consultants has been assembled and is currently waiting to come in and "fix" the problems; all lies. George	"Andrea, El Paso, Texas, U.S.A."

	S. May's "larceny," as taught by its representatives, is the life blood of the profitability of the business."
GSMIC 0011	"...they were simply analysts that couldn't cut it in the field and for whatever reason stayed on with GSM for a while longer. Their job was just to print out the boilerplate notebook, eat up billable hours and stay on as long as the client could tolerate them."	"Danny—Henderson, Nevada U.S.A."
GSMIC 0013	"I was also kept busy filling out forms and papers that were useless to the clients, but were integral parts of covering George's backside. Project Directors are a joke—all they do is fill out more papers, waste hours and try to sell "expansions" or "MSP's" or "eLearning"—just to increase commission and decrease the client's bank account."	"G. Calvin—Tampa, Florida U.S.A."
GSMIC 0013-15	"The only way you can make a living wage is to have at least 3 jobs running at a time... You also get all the "one-day" wonder jobs during your first 3-4 months, so it is, again, virtually impossible to make a living" "According to what I have been told, SENEX's get paid on the total number of "man day's," which means that when a SENEX sells 10 hours of your time to a client, and tell you to bill only 8, it's no skin off their nose! They get paid the same whether it's 10 or 8."	"G. Calvin—Tampa, Florida U.S.A."

GSMIC 0030	"When I went out, I was verbally abused by my "Senior Executive" (Once again, a clown disguising as this position)"	"Disgusted, Somewhere, Michigan U.S.A."
GSMIC 0031-32	"That one account you signed was worth at least $24,700.00 gross to them...Hotel room for your training $200... Your advance $1,500 with admin costs they will pay you only 6% of the collected first round they will sue for the rest and get all costs covered in court by your not commissioned on that..Lets say 6 flights at $300.00=$18,000.00, Training cost $200.00, Hiring cost $200.00...Let's them give a full 20% for the 150 hours you sold okay? $4,950... Gives a grand take of $15,850.00 in pure profit! Now lets say they had a full training class of 24 sales reps (whoops your not to say your in sales) shall we? If they ALL has the same results as you did, they have a total	"Chet—Los Angeles, California, U.S.A."

	profit on just your class of $380,400.00. Lets say your class in total nails a low rate of 50% in the first two weeks (they stay for tree most of the time so 50% on two weeks is fair). 24 reps X two bits of the apple is 48 canned pitches a week at 2 weeks 96 canned sales pitches @ 50% close rate is,,, drum roll please OH my 48 sales now lets say they are all low ball 150 hour jobs shall we? 48 X $15,850=$760,8000.00 PURE PROFIT! Not to mention they double and triple dip on expenses and they do not pay full commissions on every job so the take could be a cool million on just your class. Now you see why they have 150 sales classes a year (combining all locations).”
GSMIC 0032-33	“1) The customer cancels before the survey date, 2) the analyst arrives and is so overbearing, obnoxious, and abusive that the customer shows them the door, and I get no credit (or commission) for the survey, or 3) the analyst declares the company to be BMS...again, no commission.”	“Diane--Manistee, Michigan U.S.A.

GSMIC 0039	“The company treats their employees very poorly, perhaps due to the more than 100% turnover rate. They prey upon decent and well-qualified professionals who need a job due to lay-off or some other unforeseen problem.” “The so-called analyst employees are expected to pose as actual analysts, which becomes apparent after you go to your first job. The “phoney phone calls” take place in front of the owner when you “council” (actually some irritable old coot, although there are a number of them who have graduated to that position) on the other end of the phone tells you what to say to scare the owner into buying the service. That’s right, you are expected to parrot his words as if you	“Robert—Chicago, Illinois U.S.A.”

The BBB is a marketing tool for companies that join it’s ranks rather than a champion of the consumer, as they would have you believe. Don’t be fooled. It has been reported, when there are thousands of complaints and other investigations underway by authorities, the BBB has no choice but to finally give an Unsatisfactory rating to a BBB member business that is paying the BBB big membership fees every year. When a business is reported that is NOT a BBB member, BBB files WILL more likely show an Unsatisfactory rating, then reportedly shake down that company to become a member of the BBB. One positive thing about the BBB is, either way, if a business has an unsatisfactory rating with the BBB, you can be sure, the business is bad. But what about all those BBB member businesses that had complaints filed against them? Consumers never get to hear

GSMIC 0073	"He stated that most analysts make at least $80k/Yr plus on average while the good ones exceed six figures year after year. I've been through it and can tell you with 100% certainty that this was a lie. They "hire" 20 Executive Analysts per week and train them for 10 days. 18 quit within the first two weeks of being released into the field, 1 stays on six weeks longer, and the other leaves within 90 days. George S. May goes through over 1000 "Executive Analyst" positions in Chicago per year; and that's only one department. They have 4 departments (using general	"Andrea -El Paso, Texas U.S.A."

details. This is so serious, I will check all the facts I have before posting. Here is what I do have the facts on. He likes to claim to some he is a good Christian to gain the trust of those he will deceive. He flashes the "fish" sign around, which must be some sort of secret Christian signal. Meanwhile, he offers drugs to junior high school children to get them to engage in sex with each other on tape. He has the tapes in his office. He thinks he keeps the harddrive clean, but some of us have backed up the porn. We are just waiting for the police to show up and we will come forward. There is some secret porn club of pedifiles at George S. May which involves the office directors. When they have district meetings they watch kiddie porn videos and smoke crack. These are some really messed up people. More to follow in a few days as soon as I can verify a few things. Party pictures will also be posted."
