Re: Expedited Arbitration of Pat Down Security Checks Disagreement

Dear Dick:

This letter will confirm our discussion and the agreement we have reached earlier today, on behalf of our respective clients, that the period in which either party may submit their disagreement over pat down security checks to expedited arbitration pursuant to Paragraph 5 of that certain provisional agreement between the Chicago Bears Football Club, Inc. and the Chicago Park District is extended for an additional period of time expiring on March 27, 2006. In addition, neither party may terminate the provisional agreement under paragraph 8 unless expedited arbitration is not initiated on or before March 27, 2006 or such later date resulting from any further extensions that may be agreed to by the parties. All other provisions of the provisional agreement shall remain in effect.

The reason for such extension is to allow more time for the Chicago Park District to evaluate and respond to a settlement proposal made by the Chicago Bears Football Club, Inc on January 30, 2006.
