Re: David Grochocinski v. Mayer Brown Rowe & Maw LLP, et al.
Case No. 06 C 5486

Dear Judge Kendall:

At the court appearance yesterday, Your Honor stated that this matter was being referred to Magistrate Judge Denlow for resolution of any disputes regarding the application of privilege during discovery on the unclean hands defense. (See 12/13/07 Transcript at pp. 13-14, copy attached.) However, the Orders issued after our appearance say that the referral to Magistrate Denlow is for discovery supervision, without the "privilege" limitation.

If the Court intended the referral to be limited to the issue of privilege, we respectfully request that the Court so state in an amended referral order so that there is no future confusion regarding the matters properly before Magistrate Judge Denlow.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Stephen Novack
