Dear Richard:

I have a proposal that should allow for the production by Gary Kremen of his documents relating to Match.com, Match.com's predecessor companies, and Spark Network Services, including the fourteen boxes of documents that Mr. Kremen reviewed at Spark's request, without further controversy. We will agree to pay $2,500.00 toward the cost of getting the documents shipped to your office and assembled for inspection by us. With respect to the privilege issue, Magistrate Judge Nan Nolan has agreed to enter an Order in this case containing a claw back provision that would require the return of any privileged documents inadvertently produced. That Order should obviate the need for a privilege review, thereby mooting the privilege review cost issue.

Please let me know if these terms are acceptable to you and Mr. Kremen so that you and I can promptly arrange for our inspection of these documents.

Sincerely,

Larry D. Carlson
