JUDGMENT IN A CIVIL CASE

THIS CAUSE COMING ON FOR status hearing, with counsel for all parties not in default being present in open court;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED: Judgment is entered in favor of plaintiff Northland Insurance Company ("Northland") and against defendants Malibu Limousine, Inc. ("Malibu"), Hinsdale Coach Limousine ("Hinsdale"), Robert Hoberg ("Hoberg"), and Donald Mrozek ("Mrozek"). The court finds that the application for the policy of insurance issued by Northland, which is the subject matter of Northland's Complaint, Policy No. TP236317 (the "Northland policy"), contained misrepresentations which were material to the acceptance of the risk by Northland, as contemplated by 215 ILCS 5/154. Based on the misrepresentations, the Northland policy is hereby rescinded in its entirety. The court finds that the Northland policy is null and void and provides no insurance or rights to Malibu, Hinsdale, Hoberg or Mrozek with respect to the injuries sustained by Mrozek on November 12, 2007, the lawsuit filed by Mrozek seeking to recover damages for said injuries, Mrozek v. Malibu, etc., et al., Court No. 08 L 001424 in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, or any other actual or alleged injury, damage, claim, cause of action, lawsuit or benefit, without limitation. All parties to bear their own costs.
