Even the most sweeping political, social, and cultural upheavals in human history have their humble beginnings in a cup of Vietnamese coffee, a loaf of French bread, or 14 shrimp bread up with Asadero cheese, poblano chiles, grilled scallions, and salsa. Today's Groupon makes sure they won't start the revolution without you: for $20, you get $40 worth of upscale Mexican cuisine at Zapalista at Zapalista's South Loop or Northbrook locations.

Zapalista's tequila options are divided into blancos (bottled without aging), reposados (aged in an oak barrel for two to 12 months), añeños (aged from one to three years), and del maguey mezcals (100% agave mezcals from Oaxaca, Mexico). Each pair well with a different food, and all are best enjoyed in summer in Zapalista's outdoor dining area; the covered patio attracts masses of margarita lovers, according to the Chicago Reader.

Though passively aggressively "misplacing" office memos will never truly count as fighting the power, today's Groupon to Zapalista Mexican Grill will at least let you eat the food preferred by history's true revolutionaries.

The Gestation Period of Tequila

Some tequilas undergo a period of development before they enter the world, much in the same way that humans do. Here is a brief comparison between the two:

- Human: Normally takes 37–42 weeks
- Tequila: Takes anywhere from two months to 56 years, depending on whether the distiller wants the tequila to taste like expensive pasabani or that bittersweet nostalgia for childhood summers spent in Combray
- Human: Occurs inside of a female
- Tequila: Occurs inside oak barrels or the stomachs of living Pinakness winners
- Human: Divided into trimesters
- Tequila: Divided into septonogoms
- Human: Can determine the sex of the child with an ultrasound
- Tequila: Can determine the flavor profile of the tequila by snorting the barrel with a six-shooter to make a tagging hole

About Groupon

Groupon started in November 2008 as part of The Point, a platform for collective action. We started Groupon to make it easier for people to enjoy the great things in their community. We do it by offering daily deals at unbeatable prices through the power of group buying.

We also use Groupon's consumer collective to lift each community we touch, by featuring local charities and organizing support for community causes.

We treat our customers the way that we like to be treated, and do everything we can to offer a "too good to be true" experience from the moment you buy your Groupon to the day you use it.

FAQ

What is Groupon?

Each day, Groupon features an unbeatable deal on the best stuff to do, see, eat, and buy in your city. By promising businesses a minimum number of customers, we get discounts you won't find anywhere else. We call it "collective buying power."

Do I have to sign up a group of people I know to get the deal?

Nope - our hundreds of thousands of members make up a big enough group. You'll probably want to invite people anyway, though - Groupons are fun to use with friends, grandparents, and men who wear monocles.

I like today's deal - how do I get it?

Just click "BUY" before the offer ends at midnight. If the minimum number of people sign up, we'll charge your card and send you a link to print your Groupon. If not enough people join, no one gets it (and you won't be charged), so invite your friends to make sure you get the deal.

What happens if the Groupon doesn't reach its required minimum number of purchasers?

If not enough people sign up, then the deal is canceled, and you won't be charged. Better luck next time! So if you really want the Groupon, be sure to either beg or threaten your friends.

Do I need to use my Groupon the same day I buy it?

No. Many Groupons have an expiration date, but you never have to use them on the date of purchase.

I bought a Groupon - how do I use it?

Once you're charged, you'll receive an email with a link to sign in, and print your Groupon. The Groupon has redemption instructions and a map right on it!

Can I buy a Groupon as a gift for someone else?

Yes. We communicate with all the businesses that we work with that Groupons can be gifted, and unless the Fine Print specifically states otherwise, gift away! To have us send them the gift, select the gift option at checkout.

Can I buy a Groupon as a gift for someone else?

Yes. We communicate with all the businesses that we work with that Groupons can be gifted, and unless the Fine Print specifically states otherwise, gift away! To have us send them the gift, select the gift option at checkout.

Wait, my name is on the Groupon. Are you sure I can use this as a gift?

Yes!

If I don't use the full value of the Groupon in one visit, can I use the remainder later?

No. Unless otherwise stated you do not receive store credit or cash back for whatever you don't use. Bring a friend - share a little!

Can I combine my Groupon with other offers or specials?

No... not unless the Groupon specifically states otherwise.

Am I billed as soon as I join a Groupon?

No - you are only charged if the Groupon reaches the required minimum.

Is Groupon safe?

Extremely. Your credit card number is transmitted by SSL, directly to a secure electronic vault. At no time is your credit card information stored on our servers.

Can I return a Groupon?

Returns are handled on a case-by-case basis. Within the limits of reason, we'll do what it takes to make you happy. Unless there is something wrong with the purchase, we are generally unable to offer refunds after one week from the purchase date.

If you'd like to discuss returning a Groupon, email call us: 866-788-7888, or small mail us a picture of a threatening note you attached to your refrigerator using poeety magnets.

Do you ever remove comments from the discussion board?

Generally, no. We only remove comments when someone is making personal attacks or engaging in other conventional forms of bullying.

What if the business for my Groupon closes down?

If anything happens that makes it impossible for you to redeem your Groupon, we'll make sure you get your money back.

How can I get my business on Groupon?

Check out GrouponWorks for more information.

I just sent a referral to my friend - now what?

If your friend makes their first Groupon purchase within 72 hours from the time they click on the referral link you sent them,

I just sent a referral to my friend - now what?
 Your friend makes their first Groupon purchase within 72 hours from the time they click on the referral link you sent them, we'll send you an email to tell you that we've put $10 worth of credits in your account.

What if the person I refer subscribes to the site - any love for that?
 Of course! If someone you refers subscribes within 72 hours, you'll receive a $10 credit whenever they make their first purchase.

Can I refer as many people as I want?
 Yes!

I received referral codes from three people - do they all get rewarded?
 No, only the last code you click on before making your first purchase will generate a reward for the person who sent it to you. Which friend do you like best?

Why do you only feature one deal a day? I want more Groupons!
 When you're looking for stuff to do, choice can be overwhelming. We focus on one great thing each day and offer it at an unbeatable price to make things simple for you. Hang out with Groupon for a week, and you'll find something that's impossible to refuse.

FAQ

What is Groupon?

Each day, Groupon features an unbelievable deal on the best stuff to do, see, eat, and buy in your city. By promising businesses a minimum number of customers, we get discounts you won't find anywhere else. We call it "collective buying power."

Do I have to sign up a group of people I know to get the deal?

Nope - our hundreds of thousands of members make up a big enough group. You'll probably want to invite people anyway, though - Groupons are fun to use with friends, grandparents, and men who wear monodis.

I like today's deal - how do I get it?

Just click "BUY" before the offer ends at midnight. If the minimum number of people sign up, we'll charge your card and send you a link to print your Groupon. If not enough people join, no one gets it (and you won't be charged), so invite your friends to make sure you get the deal!

What happens if the Groupon doesn't reach its required minimum number of purchasers?

If not enough people sign up, then the deal is canceled, and you won't be charged. Better luck next time! So if you really want the Groupon, be sure to e-lather bag it with all your friends.

Do I need to use my Groupon the same day I buy it?

No. Many Groupons have an expiration date, but you never have to use them on the date of purchase.

I bought a Groupon - how do I use it?

Once you're charged, you'll receive an email with a link to sign in and print your Groupon. The Groupon has redemption instructions and a map right on it!

Can I buy a Groupon as a gift for someone else?

Yes. We communicate with all the businesses that we work with that Groupons can be gifted, and unless the Fine Print specifically states otherwise, gift away! To have us send them the gift, select the gift option at checkout.

Can I buy a Groupon as a gift for someone else?

Yes. We communicate with all the businesses that we work with that Groupons can be gifted, and unless the Fine Print specifically states otherwise, gift away! To have us send them the gift, select the gift option at checkout.

Wait, my name is on the Groupon. Are you sure I can use this as a gift?

Yes!

If I don't use the full value of the Groupon in one visit, can I use the remainder later?

No. Unless otherwise stated you do not receive store credit or cash back for whatever you don't use. Bring a friend - share a little!

Can I combine my Groupon with other offers or specials?

No... not unless the Groupon specifically states otherwise.

Am I billed as soon as I join a Groupon?

No - you are only charged if the Groupon reaches the required minimum.

Is Groupon safe?

Extremely. Your credit card number is transmitted by SSL directly to a secure electronic vault. At no time is your credit card information stored on our servers.

Can I return a Groupon?

Returns are handled on a case-by-case basis. Within the limits of reason, we'll do what it takes to make you happy. Unless there is something wrong with the purchase, we are generally unable to offer refunds after one week from the purchase date.

If you'd like to discuss returning a Groupon, email, call us: customerservice@groupon.com, or send us a picture of a threatening note you attached to your refrigerator using pokey magnets.

Do you ever remove comments from the discussion board?

Generally, no. We only remove comments when someone is making personal attacks or engaging in other conventional forms of trolling.

What if the business for my Groupon closes down?

If anything happens that makes it impossible for you to redeem your Groupon, we'll make sure you get your money back.

How can I get my business on Groupon?

Check out GrouponVista for more information.

I just sent a referral to my friend - now what?

I just sent a referral to my friend - now what?

If your friend makes their first Groupon purchase within 72 hours from the time they click on the referral link you send them, we'll send you an email to tell you that we've put $10 worth of credits in your account.

What if the person I refer subscribes to the site - any love for that?

Of course! If someone you refer subscribes within 72 hours, you'll receive a $10 credit whenever they make their first purchase.

Can I refer as many people as I want?

Yes!

I received referral codes from three people - do they all get rewarded?

No, only the last code you click on before making your first purchase will generate a reward for the person who sent it to you. Which friend do you like best?

Why do you only feature one deal a day? I want more Groupons!

When you're looking for stuff to do, choice can be overwhelming. We focus on one great thing each day and offer it at an unbeatable price to make things simple for you. Hang out with Groupon for a week, and you'll find something that's impossible to resist.

One of your write-ups stated that "hummingbirds come from cocoons"... I'm not sure that's correct.

Thank you for your suggestion, but it is correct.
