Dear Jim:

Please find enclosed a check in the amount of $2,324.51 plus cash in the amount of $3.76 for a total of $2,328.27, which represents payment of the post-judgment interest. This payment together, with the previous payment for the judgment and pre-judgment interest, satisfies the judgment.

In the next few days, I will send over a release and satisfaction of judgment for filing.

Very truly yours,

JOHNSON & BELL, LTD.
