II. Instructions

1. The person responding to a request should have knowledge to answer said questions. If another person has superior knowledge on certain questions, that other person should respond to that request and be so designated. If such person is unavailable, that person should be fully identified and the nature and scope of their knowledge and the reasons that such person's knowledge is or is believed to be superior, explained fully.

2. In responding to these requests, furnish all information, however obtained, including hearsay that is available to You and any information known by You, in Your possession, or appearing in Your records.

3. These are intended as continuing requests having within them a duty to timely supplement the responses until and during the course of trial. Information sought by these requests that You obtain after You serve Your responses must be disclosed to the Plaintiff by supplementary responses.

4. It is intended by this set of requests to elicit information not merely within Your knowledge, but obtainable by You or on Your behalf.

5. You may not claim lack of information or knowledge as grounds for failing to respond to any Interrogatory or as grounds for giving an incomplete or partial response to any Interrogatory without exercising due diligence to secure the full information needed to do so.

Where You rely or respond based on information provided to You from any other person, fully identify that person and how You obtained the information from them. Where You rely on information in any document, specifically identify the document and identify the person who has custody of that document.

6. If You cannot respond to a Interrogatory in full after exercising due diligence to secure the full information needed to do so, so state and respond to the extent possible, specifying Your inability to respond to the remainder, stating whatever information or knowledge You have concerning the unresponded portion and detailing what You did in attempting to secure the unknown information.

7. If any Interrogatory is objected to on the basis that the time period covered by the request is irrelevant, burdensome, or otherwise inappropriate, state what time period You consider proper for that request and answer the request for that time period, preserving Your objection to the remainder of the time period.

8. If You object or otherwise refuses to respond to any portion of any Interrogatory, You shall (1) state the nature and basis of the objection or reason for such refusal in sufficient fashion to permit the Court to rule on the validity of the objection; and (2) answer all portions of such Interrogatory that are not claimed to be objectionable.

9. If You object to answering all or any part of any Interrogatory on the grounds of privilege or work product, it is required to identify the privileged document(s) or communication(s), and with respect to each such privileged responsive document or communication identify:

- (a) the date appearing on such document, or if no date appears, the date on which such document or ESI was prepared;

- (b) ESI metadata creation, revision, transmission, receipt, and last access dates;
- (c) the name of each person to whom such document or ESI was addressed;
- (d) the name of each person, other than the addressee(s) identified in subparagraph (c) above, to whom such document or ESI, or copy thereof was sent, or with whom such document was discussed;
- (e) the name of each person who signed such document or ESI, if not signed, the name of each person who prepared it;
- (f) the name of each person making any contribution to the authorship of such document or ESI;
- (g) the job title or position of each person identified in subparagraph (c), (d), (e), and (f) above;
- (h) the date such document or ESI was received or discussed by each person identified in subparagraphs (c) or (d) above;
- (i) the general nature or description of such document or ESI, and, where applicable, its number of pages;
- (j) the name of each person who currently has custody of such document or ESI; and
- (k) the specific ground(s) upon which the privilege or work product rests.

Each demand herein shall be construed independently and shall not be limited by reference to any other demand.

10. The singular form of a word shall be interpreted as plural, and the plural form of a word shall be interpreted as singular, whichever makes the Interrogatory most broad.

11. As used herein, the present tense shall also include the past tense.

12. For any term used herein, which is not otherwise specifically defined, the common and usual meaning of such term is intended. Any ambiguity in these interrogatories shall be resolved so as to construe these interrogatories as broadly as possible.

13. When these interrogatories refer to a “specific location,” they contemplate a level of detail that would allow counsel to independently locate an item without significant assistance. Thus, when these interrogatories request the specific location of digital media, an acceptable answer might be “in Bill Johnson’s office, at 123 Main Street, Suite 100, New York, NY 10000.”

14. If You are producing any document in lieu of answering any of the Interrogatories stated herein, all documents are to be produced in the form, order, and manner in which they are maintained in Your files. Documents are to be produced in the folders, cartons, or containers in which they have been maintained, stored, clipped, stapled, or otherwise arranged in the same form and manner in which they were found and in such a manner that the office and location from which they were produced is readily identifiable. Whenever a document (as defined) or group of documents is taken out of a file folder, file drawer, file box, or notebook, before the same is produced, attach thereto a copy of the label on the file folder, file box, or notebook from which the document or group of documents was removed. All ESI should be produced in native format, reasonably usable, and verifiably responsive to the pertinent request(s) and processable using readily available tools.
