Counsel:

As I'm sure you've concluded by now, we decided not to amend the pleadings in this case. As we've made clear, however, Mr. Dunstan will not be seeking to certify the ICFA claim on behalf of the subclass.

Since we've decided not to amend, and even though we believe you're not entitled to them and Mr. Dunstan continues to have significant privacy concerns, in the interest of moving this case forward on behalf of the class, he's decided to provide the entirety of his anti-virus logs to comScore in an effort to move this case forward on behalf of the class. We hope this avoids any further expenditure of resources on this issue, which thus far has been a complete waste.

Please be advised that the produced documents (attached here) are marked "CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS' Eyes Only" pursuant to the Protective Order entered in this case. (Dkt. No. 72.) Please treat them accordingly.

Thanks,
Ben
