PLAINTIFF JEFF DUNSTAN’S FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSES TO DEFENDANT COMSCORE, INC.’S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff Jeff Dunstan (“Dunstan” or “Plaintiff”) provides the following supplemental answers to Defendant comScore, Inc.’s (“comScore” or “Defendant”) First Set of Interrogatories:

Answers to Interrogatories

6. Describe all Facts Related To Your efforts to remove comScore Software from Your computer, including but not limited to describing the amount of time You contend the comScore software was installed on Your computer.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER: Plaintiff incorporates by reference his general and specific objections to Interrogatory No. 6 as stated in Plaintiff’s Responses to Defendant’s First Set of Interrogatories.

Subject to and without waiving these objections, Plaintiff states that in or around September of 2010, he downloaded and installed photo-cropping software that, unbeknownst to him, was bundled with comScore’s software. Plaintiff states that, to the best of his knowledge, the comScore software operated on his computer for one (1) day.
