Ben,

As mentioned on the call, we will need some time to ensure we can find a court reporter for the evening of December 17, 2013. We will get back to you on the start time for Mr. Harris' deposition.

We are still working on deposition scheduling for the 30(b)(6) deposition, but will hopefully be able to get back to you soon. Because Plaintiffs' 30(b)(6) notice is so wide-ranging, a series of short depositions will be required. It would therefore be much more efficient from a logistical and scheduling standpoint to take these depositions in Reston, Virginia. Please confirm that Plaintiffs will take these depositions in Reston.

Although it is comScore's continued position that the "decision-making" topics are irrelevant, in an effort to resolve the dispute between the parties comScore will revise its 30(b)(6) deposition topics to include the "decision-making" topics. comScore maintains its objection to the Abraham deposition.

comScore will make Mr. O'Toole available for a second deposition if Plaintiffs travel to Reston for the 30(b)(6) depositions.

We are still investigating whether a confidentiality agreement exists between comScore and Mr. Fox. In any event, comScore would like to attend and is available on Dec. 19th.

Regards,

Robyn Bowland*Associate,*
