ORDER

This case comes before the Court on the motion of Plaintiff Cecil Kruel ("Kruel") to proceed in forma pauperis, without prepayment of fees.

A litigant may proceed in forma pauperis if the litigant is unable to pay the costs of commencing the action. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). The Court is unable to determine Kruel's ability to pay the costs of commencing this action because her application suffers from several deficiencies. First, Kruel omits certain information, including the address of her last employer. Second, Kruel lists her son as a person who is dependent on her for support but fails to identify the monthly amount she contributes towards his support. Even more, Kruel's answers are internally inconsistent, as she identifies her son as both a person who lives with her and a person who does not live with her. Finally, Kruel fails to submit any information concerning her expenses or identify the sources of funds which she uses to pay her monthly expenses.

ORDER

For these reasons, the Court orders KrueI to submit the following: (1) an amended application with an accurate and complete response to each question; (2) a sworn statement listing the nature and amount of her expenses; and (3) a sworn statement identifying the sources from which she derives funds to pay such expenses. KrueI must either comply with this Court's order and provide the above-stated information, or pay the $350 filing fee, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Upon receipt, the Court will assess KrueI's ability to pay the costs of commencing this action. KrueI's failure to provide further information, or pay the filing fee, will result in dismissal of this case.
